173rd Annual Comvention

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA
MONDAY, MAY 6, 1957, 4:00 P.M.

The One Hundred Seventy-third Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in The Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled at The Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, on Monday, May 6, 1957 at 4:00 P.M., in accordance with the Constitution and the Resolution of the last Convention.

The Bishop of the Diocese called the Convention to order and opened the session with prayer.

A Quorum being present the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Long was duly elected Secretary and the Rev. Thomas A. Meryweather was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

The Rev. William Roulston McKean, chairman, presented the Report of The Committee on the Dispatch of Business which on Motion was adopted as follows:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by title where feasible, and as an effort is to be made to transact the work of Convention in one full day, that discussion be curtailed as far as possible.

Should the Business of the Convention be not completed at 5:30 P.M. on Tuesday, May 7, 1957, a Recess shall be taken at that hour until 7:45 P.M. Should further time be required, Convention shall meet again on Wednesday, May 8, 1957, at 9:00 A.M.

The Rev. Howard A. Hopkins presented the Report of the Committee on Arrangements which was adopted.

The Committee on arrangements has met and has made necessary changes in the seating arrangements, and seats have been assigned to all delegates. Alternates are not authorized to have seats or to vote in convention unless they have registered with the Assistant Secretary, certifying that they are authorized to take the place of the elected deputy.

Candidates for the Ministry, alternate deputies and others, will find seats in the balcony.

A public address system has been installed. Three microphones for the use of the deputies have been placed in the side and center aisles.

A buffet luncheon will be served to deputies holding tickets at 1:00 P.M. tomorrow, in Trinity Memorial Parish House, 22nd and Spruce Streets.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy as follows:

Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Candidates For Holy Orders in this Church, Wardens of Missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the Lay Members of the Standing Committee, the Officers of the Executive Council and the Executive Officer of the Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

On motion it was adopted.

The Secretary reported further:

Alternates have not seats or votes in Convention except when they register with the Assistant Secretary certifying they are authorized to take the place of the elected deputy.

The Secretary reported that he was in receipt of three communications from the 1956 Diocesan Convention:

The following resolution was adpoted at the 172nd Convention:

RESOLVED, that the word "Lay Persons" be substituted for the word "Laymen" in sentence one of Article IV of the Constitution of the Diocese.

This will be reported as the Special Order of the Day, Tuesday, May 7th, following the report of Bishop Armstrong on the Diocesan Campaign for Capital Funds.

Report from the Committee on the Definition of "A Member of this Church" (Appendix T, Page 276).

The Report of Committee on Revision of Parochial Report Form was presented by The Rt. Rev. William P. Roberts, Chairman and the following resolution was presented on motion adopted: (Appendix I, Page 231).

RESOLUTION: that this Committee be continued for one more year, with authority to work out a proposed Revised Parochial Report Form with interested groups from other Dioceses; and further, that the need for revision of the Form be placed before the next meeting of Province III, with a view to possible Provincial action before the 1958 General Convention.

During the past year the Secretary has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons as far as possible.

On December 16, 1956, the Parochial Reports were mailed and that on February 1, 1957, when these reports were due, only 54 of the 204 had been received. The Secretary would again stress the importance of making full returns on the Annual Reports of the Diocese for the General Convention.

That on May 6, 1957, Parishes, Missions and Chapels of the Diocese entitled to membership in this convention have not qualified as follows:

Of the 160 Parishes the following have not sent in the Certificate for Lay Deputies and therefore have no Lay Deputies in Convention:

The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves asked permission of the Convention to introduce a resolution before the election of Deputies to General Convention takes place. The purpose of the resolution is to make possible the election of alternates at the Convention in the year in which the General Convention meets. Alternates would not be elected at this convention (1957). The Chairman of the Committee on Canons of the Diocese reported that he would be prepared to introduce a change in Canon 20 Section 1, if the Convention approves Mr. Twelves' resolution. A two-third majority, under Standing Rules of Order #10, is necessary to change the Rules of Order to permit the introduction of Mr. Twelves resolution at this time. The Chairman of Elections informed the mover that if the resolution be adpoted there would be no alternate deputies elected at this Convention as this resolution suspends paragraph 2 of Section 1, Canon XX. The Chair called for the vote to permit the resolution being introduced at this time. The necessary majority approved.

The following resolution was presented:

BE IT RESOLVED: That if a vacancy occurs in either the Clerical or Lay Deputation to General Convention before the next annual Diocesan Convention, the vacancy shall be filled by an election at the Convention immediately preceding the General Convention.

After discussion the question was called for and the Chairman put the question and on vote the resolution was approved.

Nominations being called for from the floor, the name of the Reverend Ernest J. Harding, Christ Church, Philadelphia, was placed in nomination for election to the Standing Committee; The Reverend John Schultz, Trinity Church, Ambler, and Mr. Sidney L. W. Lea, Christ Church, Philadelphia, were placed in nomination for election as Deputies to General Convention. Also the name of the Reverend Charles F. Ehly, Church of the Incarnation, Drexel Hill, was placed in nomination as a member of the Board of Control of the Diocesan library, and the name of Mr. James Merritt, of St. Thomas, Whitemarsh, was placed in nomination to fill a vacancy on the Cathedral Chapter.

There being no further nominations, on motion duly seconded and carried, the nominations were declared closed and the Secretary instructed to cast the ballot where only a sufficient number were nominated. The President then declared elected 1 lay member of the Provincial Synod, 1 Clerical member of the Board of Control of the Diocesan Library, 2 Clerical and 2 Lay members of the Cathedral Chapter, 3 members of Corporation of Christian Work in Educational Institutions, and 5 lay members were nominated Directors of the Church Foundation.

Mr. Noble Smith
Mr. Robert James Sykes

The following resolution was presented by Mr. Joseph Cuza, deputy of Church of the Advent, Philadelphia and referred to the Executive Director of the City Mission, through the Committee on Dispatch of Business:

RESOLVED, there is today in Philadelphia a crying need for Church operated Nursing or Convalescent Homes. The commercial type of such homes unquestionably operate at a decided profit. This presents a Christian opportunity and especially to those owning types of homes suitable for this purpose, and desire to give their homes to the Diocese of Pennsylvania as a Memorial giving our Church an opportunity to provide Christian care — at a much lower cost — to those seeking such a haven.

The following resolution was presented by Mr. Clark Hanna Deputy of Good Shepherd Church, Germantown, and referred to the Committee on Special Resolutions.

WHEREAS, there has been in recent years a growing tendency within the Episcopal Church to involve the Church in outside movements and organizations having little or nothing to do with spreading and practicing the Gospel of Christ as the Way of individual redemption and, thereby, the Way to world peace and freedom;

AND WHEREAS, such tendency leads the Church to take sides on political and economic issues on which sincere churchmen may legitimately disagree, and in some instances leads further to the weakening of fundamental Christian doctrine and of the American system of free enterprise largely founded thereon

AND WHEREAS, such partisan involvement of the Church as such, directly or by implication — as distinguished from its individual members acting solely as private citizens, as is their right — misuses the Church's prestige, compromises its true function, has no valid authority in the Bible or the Book of Commnn Prayer and, at the worst, violates the injunction of St. Paul', "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers";

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Clergy and Laity of the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania in Convention assembled —

(1) Reaffirm their belief in the personal redemptive power, for all men, of faith in God as revealed in His Son, Jesus Christ, and

(2) Call upon all organizations and individuals, insofar as they may act officially or ostensibly on behalf of the Church, to dissociate and remain apart from any movement or organization (denominational, interdenominational or nondenominational) not directly and sincerely concerned with teaching and practicing such faith in accordance with fundamental Christian doctrine;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies of this Resolution be forwarded forthwith to the governing bodies of the National Council of the Episcopal Church and of each diocese and missionary district throughout the United States.

Secretary of the Executive Council reported the following resolution of the Department of Christian Social Relations having been adopted by the Executive Council and recommended to the Convention.

WHEREAS, Church people in the Diocese of Pennsylvania have in the past eight years resettled more than three hundred foreign refugees; and

WHEREAS, we believe this continuing project of witness of applied

Christian principles of liberty upon which our forebears built a strong nation, adds vitality to our country today; and

WHEREAS, legislation which made this project possible has expired; and

WHEREAS, the President of the United States has recommended that Congress enact a permanent authorization for the admission of refugees, and legislation enabling the admission of orphans to this country for adoption; and,

WHEREAS, Bills in line with the President's constructive and timely suggestions have been introduced in both the Senate and the House of Representatives; and,

WHEREAS, the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, acting pursuant to a resolution adopted at General Convention, has on numerous occasions manifested its support of those legislative measures which would continue to permit the admission to this country of refugees from natural and political disaster;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this 173rd Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania record its affirmative support for the enactment of such legislative measures into law, and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of this Convention to the Senators from Pennsylvania, and the Representatives from the Congressional Districts embracing the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and to the Chairmen of the Congressional Immigration Committee, urging their support of legislative measures embodying these principles.

The following resolution was presented by the Rev. J. McNeal Wheatley and referred to the Committee on Special Resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Joint Commission of General Convention on Ecumenical Relations has requested Church-wide discussion of its proposal to include in its report to the General Convention of 1958 a resolution setting forth certain regulations governing proposed relations between the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America and the Church of South India, and

WHEREAS, we rejoice in the opportunity which may thereby be given us to draw closer in Christian fellowship with the brethren in that Communion, now separated from us, and

WHEREAS, we realize that full intercommunion is not recommended to our Commission at this time, while the Church of South India is in the process of formulating its Faith and Order, developing its Prayer Book, and unifying its ministry, and

WHEREAS, the Commission has been asked that the regulations include recognition of the orders of episcopally ordained clergy of the Church of South India, grant authority to them to celebrate the Holy Communion in our Churches, authorize their use of the liturgy of the Church of South India in our churches, invite them to preach in our churches, permit our clergy to celebrate the Holy Communion in their churches, permit our communicants to receive Holy Communion in their churches, and permit their communicants, whether confirmed or not, to receive Holy Communion in our churches, but

WHEREAS, the Lambeth Conference of 1948 has indicated many points on which the Church of South India differs substantially from the faith and practice of the historic Church as accepted throughout the Anglican Communion, and has said, "the establishment of full communion . . . must wait till the ministry of the Church of South India has become fully unified on an episcopal basis," and has made similar admonitions concerning the statement of the faith of the Church of South India, the marriage law of that Church, its optional use of the rite of Confirmation, the relation of the Church of South India to other Churches not episcopally ordered, and on similar matters, and were we not to comply with the request of the Joint Commission on Ecumenical Relations and give less than serious consideration and study to the tentative proposals made by the said Commission on Ecumenical Relations as requested,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that in accordance with the request of the Joint Commission on Ecumenical Relations to discuss its proposals, that the Bishop of the Diocese be requested to appoint a special committee to study this proposal and report to the Diocesan Convention of 1958, said Committee to convene not later than October, 1957, and be instructed to receive from any member of the Diocese such information and opinion as may be constructive in preparing its report, so that it may truly express the considered judgment of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The following resolution was present by the Rev. William P. C. Loane and was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 173rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania rescind the following resolution that was adopted by the Convention held a year ago which read

"BE IT RESOLVED: That the Commission on Music of this Diocese —in the event of any future revision of our Church Hymnal. At 8:00 P.M. a Mass Meeting was held in the Church of the Holy Trinity, attended by Deputies of the Convention and members of the Diocese; approximately 170 of the clergy being vested and in procession. The choir of the Church of the Holy Trinity led the singing. FOR THE DEPARTED

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace, and may light perpetual shine upon them. Amen.

THE COMMUNION OF SAINTS

O Eternal Lord God, who holdest all souls in life, vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to thy whole Church in paradise and on earth, thy light and thy peace; and grant that, following the good examples of those who have served thee here and are now at rest, we may at the last enter with them into thine unending joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE ANGLICAN COMMUNION

"Almighty God, Who by Thy Holy Spirit has established Thy Church throughout the world; Grant, we beseech Thee, that all who share the Faith, Worship, and Fellowship of the Anglican Communion may be drawn ever closer to Thee and to one another in unity of purpose and in the bond of love, that with one heart we may desire the prosperity of Thy Holy Apostolic Church, and with one voice proclaim the Faith once delivered to the Saints. Grant strength and wisdom to the clergy, and enlighten and sustain all thy faithful people therein, that with adventurous zeal, they may labor abundantly for the salvation of all men and the upbuilding of Thy Kingdom; through Jesus Christ, our Lord; to Whom with Thee and the Holy Ghost be all honor and glory, now and forevermore. Amen."

I share with you the deep disappointment over the inability of the Archbishop of Canterbury to make his trip to the United States and to be the speaker tonight. I was particularly interested in having him present to us the world-wide view of the Anglican Communion. Archbishop Fisher has done so much himself to foster the growing spirit of unity within the Anglican Communion. I have had the privilege of attending two Lambeth Conferences; one in 1930 as Chaplain to Bishop Gailor of Tennessee and one in 1948 as a member of the Conference. I am looking forward to the Conference at Lambeth in the summer of 1958.

The Anglican Congress, which was held in Minneapolis in 1954 was a great experience. There were not only Bishops from all over the world, but Priests and laymen as well. At the Communion Service in the Cathedral each morning, the Celebrant was the Metropolitan of a branch of the Anglican Communion and he celebrated according to the rite of that particular Church. I feel that it is a most desirable thing for us to realize that the Episcopal Church is a constituent part of the world-wide Anglican Communion. It would have been a great privilege to have had the Archbishop of Canterbury here to deliver the Bohlen Lecture on the subject of the Anglican Communion. Perhaps we will have that privilege at some future date.

The Archbishop of Canterbury was to have accompanied our own Presiding Bishop at the commemoration of the landing of the colonists at Jamestown in 1607. This expedition of the Virginia Company may have been motivated primarily by the desire of riches, but there was also a missionary motivation. Their first act on landing was the raising of a cross, symbolizing that one of their reasons for coming to the New World was a desire to extend the work of the Church. The Rev. Robert Hunt accompanied the expedition. We are told that Mr. Hunt entered upon his work with courage; was a patient pastor; a persuasive preacher; and a persistent peacemaker. He held daily Common Prayer, preached twice on Sundays, and celebrated the Holy Communion quarterly. We rejoice in the fact that the beginning of our country was thus intimately and historically connected with the establishment of the first Episcopal Church in America.

In this service we want to pay special tribute to this historic Parish in which we are privileged, year after year, to hold our Diocesan Convention. Holy Trinity is celebrating this year its Centennial.

To quote Dr. William S. Lea:

"For 100 years, the Church of the Holy Trinity on Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia, has been a witness to the eternal reality of the Christian Faith in the heart of the city. Some of the finest preachers in the country have proclaimed the Gospel from this historic pulpit. Families whose sons built the American nation have worshiped here Sunday by Sunday. Four great wars have been fought and each has left its mark upon the people of this city There have been booms and depressions, ecstatic progress and terrifying panic. Still the Church is there, looking out across the green trees of Rittenhouse Square and pointing to things which remain untouched by the vicissitudes of history.

The stately houses which used to surround the old square are now but part of a vanished world. The city has extended its fingers farther and farther out from its center. Today there is a tall forest of apartment houses and hotels surrounding the Church and its square. But here in this new setting, the Church of the Holy Trinity has found new ways to be of service to its people. It stands there now as a living proof that the 'old downtown parish' isn't finished."

A full report will be made elsewhere on the Diocesan Campaign for Capital Funds. Pursuant to your orders in Diocesan Convention and following a detailed study by the Executive Council, we started the Campaign in November for $1,255,000.00. To date about one-half of this amount has been subscribed.

I have been severely criticized for my leadership of the Campaign. I have been told that I was not aggressive enough and that someone with more confidence should tell this Diocese that it should raise not $1,255,000 but double that amount. I am perfectly willing to accept this criticism of me personally but I should like to add that I am confident that the full amount set by your Executive Council can and will be raised, if you want it to be done. A number of our largest and strongest parishes have not, to date, taken part in the Campaign because they were in the midst of parish drives or were planning drives for greatly needed additions to their own facilities. I would like to pay tribute to the loyalty and sacrificial devotion of our clergy and people. Many vestries have assured me that their parishes will give their full quotas, even if they will be a bit late in doing so.

We have funds in hand or in sight for three or four of the most pressing needs in the Diocese. The Executive Council has authorized the building of the Church at Gulph Mills. The present building will be used as a Parish House. We are moving the Church of the Redemption from 56th and Market Streets to Southampton. We will have enough money available to buy the land and erect the first unit there. We have the money available for the site of a new mission in the King of Prussia area and hope to start work there this summer. As soon as funds are available, we will purchase sites where we have already started work or where we want to do so.

I am happy that tomorrow we shall welcome four Missions into full parish status:

St. Andrew's, West Vincent—The Rev. Kenneth C. Werner, Vicar.

St. Andrew-in-the-Fields, Somerton—The Rev. Donald L. Farrow, Vicar.

St. Peter's, Broomall—The Rev. Vernon Matthews, Vicar.

St. Philip-in-the-Fields, Oreland—The Rev. Edward E. Elliott, Vicar.

In addition we shall welcome as a parish:

Christ Church, Upper Merion—The Rev. Albert A Attenborough, Jr. Christ Church has been a Swedish Lutheran congregation with a long affiliation with this diocese.

The Armed Forces Division of the National Council is trying to set up a file of all the men and women of our church who are now serving in the Armed Forces. The Division is asking for the name and home address of all Service people. The Lutherans have maintained such a file at their national headquarters since they established it during World War II. The Military Address changes so frequently that this requires quite a large office force.

Our Armed Forces Division is following a simpler plan which has been in operation by the Diocese of Chicago. It remains to be seen how many parishes will cooperate. Off hand, I would say that the parishes which are now keeping in touch with their young people who are away in the Service or at school, will cooperate. The parishes which are not doing it will be inclined to ignore the request. It would help if every Vestry would appoint a Layman to see to it that the list is sent to me and that I am notified of all changes in the list.

The 1956 report on the use being made of the Conference Center shows an increase in its use. For example, the number of meals served jumped from 12,640 in 1955, to 18,785, in 1956.

The Rev. James Ludwig has been appointed chairman of a committee to suggest ways in which the Conference Center can be of still greater use to our parishes and diocesan organizations. He would like to receive any suggestions which you would give him.

The Diocese and the whole Church suffered a tremendous loss in the death of our Chancellor, Mr. Thomas B. K. Ringe. Mr. Ringe had served the Church long and faithfully both as a communicant, as a Warden of his parish, as a Deputy to General Convention, as a member of the National Council, and as Chancellor of the Diocese. He was untiring in his efforts and always willing to give the time to the solution of any problem that I presented to him. I shall always miss him.

With the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, I have appointed Mr. William White, Jr., lineal descendant of our First Bishop, as Chancellor.

The Compulsory Retirement of Clergy at 72 has brought about a number of problems in regard to our retired clergy and the Church Pension Fund. A Committee of our Diocesan Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions have been asked to study the matter and make recommendations to our Deputies to the General Convention of 1958 where, undoubtedly, various proposals will be made for changes in the Rules of the Church Pension Fund. It is interesting to note, at the present time in this Diocese, we have:

		Per Annum
51 Clergy	receiving pensions amounting to	$85,757.40
6 Disabled Clergy	" " " "	$11,336.40
75 Widows	" " " "	$52,161.24
2 Orphans	" " " "	$ 900.12

The total thus being paid annually by the Church Pension Fund to recipients in this Diocese is: $150,155.16.

The first step in our Church in America towards pensions for clergy and their families was taken before the Revolution. It was in 1769 that the Corporation for the Relief of Widows and Children of the Clergy was chartered in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York. Not surprisingly Benjamin Franklin seems to have had some part in it. Suspended in the war, the Society was revived in 1784. In 1796, it was split into three distinct corporations in the three states and the funds divided among them. The three have gone their independent ways ever since, and continue to perform usefully at the present time. The New Jersey and New York offshoots have retained something of the original character; the Pennsylvania branch has developed into a remarkable little unit in the nature of a life insurance company. This company continues to insure the clergy of our church in the five diocese in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The rates are the best that can be secured anywhere.

I urge all our clergy to take advantage of this company's offer. The difficulty is that most of the young clergy have the lowest salaries and are not able to take out this insurance when they need it most.

Cathedral Church of Christ, Roxborough

As many of you know, we are now in the process of erecting the Chapter House at the Cathedral. This is being built from the bequest of James and Martha B. Hay. The cornerstone is to be laid on the afternoon of May 19, and I hope that many members of the Diocese will be present at this service. By the terms of the bequest, three-fourths of the Hay Fund is to be used for the erection of the Chapter House and one-fourth will be set aside as an endowment. I am sure that this is a wise plan. We hope to do further building at the Cathedral, and feel that it is advisable that for every cent we spend on building, we should have a like amount put into the endowment. In this way, the maintenance of the Cathedral will not be a charge upon the Diocese, but will be cared for by its own endowment.

St. Mary's Church, which used to be at Broad and South Streets, is now using the Cathedral property. St. Mary's congregation will continue to use the Cathedral. St. Mary's functions as a Diocesan Mission and I appoint the Vicar on an annual basis.

It has been suggested that we ought to have a study made of the administration of the diocese. Several years ago we did have a study made by our own people of the Administrative Needs of the Diocese. As a result of that study, one or two very helpful changes were made. We secured the services of Mr. Isaac Leech as Financial Secretary. I think that it is obvious that if we make such a study, changes will be recommended which will greatly increase our Diocesan Budget. I would like to have the Convention state its mind on whether or not we should have such a study made and, if we do, should it be made by a professional group or by our own people?

The 18th Article of Mrs. Ford's Will is quoted as follows:

"Eighteenth: I give, devise and bequeath to the Church Foundation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania my home situated in Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, together with the land appurtenant thereto and all buildings and fixtures thereon, absolutely and in fee simple; also the sum of One Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($125,000.00) to be added to the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate of said Diocese, with the request that the income derived therefrom be applied toward the maintenance and upkeep of the said property if and so long as the Bishop and Standing Committee of said Diocese shall deem it to be desirable to maintain said property as a residence for the Bishop of said Diocese. The foregoing devise and bequest are absolute and unconditional, the use of the property as a Bishopstead and the use of the income from the fund for its maintenance in such capacity being only a request on my part and not a requirement of its acceptance."

APPENDIX G

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA FOR 1956

The report of the treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania is submitted herewith. The figures are in greater detail than the audit prepared from the diocesan books of account and records by Charles S. Rockey & Co., a copy of which is available for examination at the Church House.

Once again, all our bills were paid and our obligations met in full. The assessment budget for the support of the episcopate, convention and diocesan expense, rectors' salaries and pensions, amounting to $101,000 in round numbers, an increase of $5000 over 1955, was exceeded in receipts by $5000, although it is regrettable that three parishes are delinquent in these accounts.

A cheerful note was an over subscription of the missionary budget. Although this item was $53,000 more than in 1955 and, furthermore, the Lenten Mite Box offering was no longer a credit against proportionate shares, we ended the year with a carry-over. This was due in large part to the 103 parishes and missions which overpaid proportionate shares by $20,600, although 15 failed to meet their acceptances by $7500. From the surplus thus created by this and former years, the missionary work of the Diocese has been furthered by appropriations totaling almost $40,000 for such projects as an improved rectory at Epiphany, Royersford; parish house, All Saints, Fallsington, and sites for new work in the Levittown and King of Prussia areas.

It is a pleasure to record that St. Peter's, Broomall, and St. Paul, Levittown, have repaid loans of $3000 and $2000, respectively, in full. St. Thomas, West Philadelphia, has continued to meet its payments on an original advance of $40,000, now reduced to $16,546.85.

The Diocese suffered a grievous loss in the death, on June 7, 1956, of Isaac E. Leech, financial secretary. For many years he had labored faithfully, intelligently and in a dedicated manner in the interest of all the Diocese. The improvement in our finances is due in no small measure to his devotion and industry. He has been succeeded by Mr. E. Kenneth Johnson.

Finally, we record our thanks to the clergy for their leadership, to the laity for their support and to the staff at the Church House who have performed all duties with efficiency and dispatch.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK R. DRAYTON, Treasurer
EDWARD M. MANN, Ass't Treasurer

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE AND PROPERTY

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Department of Finance met bi-monthly except during the summer of 1956 and gave constant thought and study to the many financial problems confronting the Diocese throughout the year.

The Department of Property is sub department under Finance. The Report is separate.

The Committee on Financial Safeguards, Mr. Donald A. Williams, Chairman, a sub-committee of the Department of Finance, meets at the call of the chair and its report will be found elsewhere in the JOURNAL.

The Department notes with pleasure that all bills of the Diocese and its Expectation to the National Council for 1956 have been paid in full. The Diocese had accepted the assigned by the National Council.

The Treasurer's Report is most gratifying showing the break-down of the "Givings." Mr. Drayton, Treasurer, and Mr. Mann, Assistant Treasurer, give personal interest to the Finance of the Diocese and are helpful in the discussions which take place at the meetings of the Department.

The Chairman expresses his appreciation to the officers of the Diocese and the members of the Department for their splendid cooperation during the past year.

CHARLES S. ROCKEY,
Chairman

REPORT OF THE
COMMITTEES ON FINANCIAL SAFEGUARDS

The annual audit of Parish Records for the Year 1955 was carried out over a period of eight months, starting in March 1956 and continuing into October.

The audits could be concluded in much less time if Accounting Wardens and Treasurers could send their records in at the time designated. This would materially shorten the time the books were out of their possession and would result in much more satisfactory service to the individual Churches.

For the Year 1955:

115 reports were received from C.P.A. audits.
12 consented to audit but did not send records.
32 were audited by C.P.A. but no report sent.
38 Parishes did not consent to an audit.

On the whole, this is not a bad record and I hope that all of the Vestries of our Churches will soon comply with these requirements.

It is important that Accounting Wardens and Treasurers, using other firms than Charles S. Rockey & Company, instruct their Accountants to send a copy of their audit to the Secretary of the Diocese at the Church House.

There is still no standard set by which some firms, conducting these examinations, report on Fidelity Bonds covering Church officials, nor on fire insurance coverage.

All Mission properties are kept adequately insured against fire, windstorm and vandalism and the number of Parishes not properly insured is decreasing.

Accountants are again, particularly calling our attention to the observance of Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Section 1 Canon XVI, pertaining to the handling of Trust and Permanent Funds as well as securities.

Vestries and Wardens and Treasurers continually change, therefore it is highly desirable that Canon XVI be reviewed, at least annually, in order that every one be kept well informed.

The Committee wishes to extend their thanks to Accounting Wardens and Treasurers for their valuable cooperation in 1956.

DONALD H. WILLIAMS,
Chairman

REPORT OF THE PROPERTY DEPARTMENT

St. Elizabeth This magnificent plant was falling apart when the Department of Missions recommended the use of a $5,000 legacy to make essential repairs, now under way.

Epiphany, Royersford The Rectory has been completely renovated and modernized. The new Vicar is in charge.

St. Cyril's, Coatesville A new and attractive church has been built and a Vicar will give his full time to the parish. The congregation has pledged $5,000 toward the cost and is engaged in raising it.

St. Mary's, Chester A new sidewalk required by the City has been laid.

St. Mary's, Warwick Necessary repairs have been made and the interior has been renovated.

St. Paul's, Levittown We are in the middle in the sale of the house originally bought for a rectory and the purchase of a new rectory.

Trinity, Gulph Mills A new rectory has been purchased.

King of Prussia As reported by the Bishop Suffragan, sites for new work have been examined in the King of Prussia area.

St. Anne's, Willow Grove Three members of the Department have recently made a survey of the need for increasing the plant.

Ascension, West Chester The Vicarage has been renovated and is now occupied by the recently appointed Vicar.

All Saints, Fallsington Work on the new parish house is progressing satisfactorily.

The need for bringing up-to-date the catalogue of available church furnishings and furniture was discussed. Such a catalogue was started by the late Mr. Leech but in the pressure of other business it fell into disuse and is now sadly in need of revision.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION
REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

Since the last report of the Department of Missions, several very significant things have occurred. The men of Trinity, Oxford, under the leadership of The Rev. A. M. Holloway have gathered together a substantial congregation of over 100 people at Southampton, and services have been established in the school in Southampton. A tentative site has been located and it is earnestly hoped that construction of a Vicarage and a Church will be underway in 1957.

Earnest efforts have been made to locate a proper site in the King of Prussia area and negotiations are currently underway in that regard.

A third significant work has been established at St. Barnabas Church, 3rd & Dauphin Sts., in Philadelphia, under the leadership of The Rev. H. M. Blair. This is a joint operation for the community with oversight and teaching provided by the Lighthouse, supporting interest from the Teachers Association in the community and the Mission itself. This experiment is being watched with great interest and if it continues to be as successful as it seems to be now, it may be duplicatable activity for our missionary work in Center City.

The joint committee, Department of Christian Social Relations and the Department of Missions has set up an evening report meeting in the Stable of the Conference Center for Tuesday night, March 19th, at which The Rev. Richard Hardman will tell the interested people of the Diocese, some of the significant work being done in our National Churches, Research Centers, in the United States. The following Saturday our joint committee on the City Church will meet at St. Barnabas Church to study the progress of that work. We are aware that there is an increasing need for greater Diocesan participation of the missionary activity within the city. Studies are being made to determine in what direction that participation should take.

The department is making long range plans with detailed needs to be presented through the Department of Missions to the Executive Council for the year by year most pressing needs within the Diocese. We are convinced that as the people of the Diocese are informed of our progress as well as our needs, there will be increasing interest and larger participation in the total missionary venture of the Diocese.

During the year 1956 the Department of Missions was very busy. Many repairs were made to mission properties, there were numerous personnel changes and future plans were formulated. Some of the highlights were:

Necessary repairs were made at All Souls Mission for the Deaf, St. Bartholomew, Philadelphia, St. Elisabeth, Ascension, West Chester, St. Mary's, Chester, St. Mark, Honey Brook.

Reactivating of the work up in Southampton area under the supervision of the Convocation of Germantown and The Rev. Messrs. Halloway and Sharp.

New work at Oxford, Pa., under the supervision of the Dean of the Convocation of Chester and the Perpetual Deacon and The Rev. Lewis H. Worrall. Mr. Worrall is serving the mission at Oxford and at the present time are meeting in the Odd Fellows Hall.

St. Peter's, Broomall, placed tile flooring in the Parish House building basement, for an amount of $1,600.00; at no cost to the Diocese.

St. Mary's, Warwick, was granted permission to spend $800.00 on repairs to its building at no cost to the Diocese.

St. Anne's Mission, Willow Grove, was given permission to purchase a Baldwin electric organ, at a cost of $3,400.00. The mission will be responsible for the payment of the organ.

St. Mark's Church, Honey Brook, received permission to place a memorial window in the church at no cost to the Diocese.

St. Paul's, Levittown, completed the payment on its loan from the Diocese.

The laying of the cornerstone Parish House at All Saints Mission, Falsington, was held September 23rd.

Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, had a new entrance to the basement built.

The Rev. Harry M. Blair, Perpetual Deacon, was appointed Vicar in Charge of St. Barnabas, Kensington.

The Rev. Earl H. Brill was appointed Vicar of Epiphany, Royersford, to replace The Rev. Harold C. Kellogg who resigned.

The Rev. Hayward B. Crewe, was appointed Vicar of Trinity, Gulph Mills.

The Rev. Cecil H. Cowan was appointed Vicar of Ascension, West Chester and St. Cyril's, Coatesville, to replace The Rev. H. Albion Ferrell.

The Rev. Edward Elliott appointed Vicar of St. Philip-in-the-field, Oreland, to replace The Rev. Joseph Tatrall who resigned. The Rev. Henry J. Sharp appointed Vicar of St. Bartholomew, Philadelphia, to replace The Rev. George Kahlbraugh who resigned.

Emmanuel, Quakertown, was granted Parish status.

The following are urgent needs in the missionary work of the Diocese to be considered by the Diocesan campaign for Capital Funds:

To complete St. Paul's, Edgely-Levittown, by building a Parish House	$50,000
To double the Parish House facilities at Christ Church, Eddington	$30,000
To buy a site and build a church and vicarage at Southampton area	$100,000
To buy a site and build a church and vicarage in the King of Prussia area	$100,000
For a new church at Trinity, Gulph Mills	$50,000
To buy a site and build a church and vicarage at Brookhaven	$100,000
To buy two sites and build two churches and vicarages in the Northeast Philadelphia Development planned by the City Planning Commission for	$220,000
To buy a site in Chester County in the triangle between West Chester, Newton and Chadds Ford	$15,000
making a total of	$660,000

Death of Mr. Isaac E. Leech, Treasurer of the Department of Missions.

Mr. E. Kenneth Johnson was appointed Treasurer of the Department of Missions.

The Rectory of St. Paul's, Levittown is to be sold at 37 Fortune Lane and a property at 3 Pensive Lane, Levittown, which is across the street from the church, is to be purchased.

J. GILLESPIE ARMSTRONG,
Chairman

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

FOR THE YEAR 1956

It is a great inspiration to a Dean of a Convocation to work with a group of missionaries as capable and enthusiastic as we have in our Convocation. As a result of their devotion and zeal the work in the Convocation has made good progress and with the exception of two or three of our missions, due to their locality, we show a steady increase in attendance as well as other activities.

Ascension—Parkesburg

This mission, with the Rev. Mr. Frederick Breuninger as the Vicar, is continuing to show new vigor and life. With the aid of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation that congregation has been able to do much necessary repair work as well as some necessary improvements. For the first time in a long period the mission reports 8 persons added through Confirmation or being received. There is also a marked increase in church school attendance.

Ascension—West Chester

Father Albion Ferrell was replaced by Father Cecil H. Cowan during the past year and we hope that this mission will show in the coming year a renewed interest and determination to do a noble job for the Kingdom of God. There is able leadership among its lay people and if properly channelled they ought to be able to move forward.

St. Andrew's—Belmont Hills

Mr. David Hilsee has finished his second year as lay reader in charge of this mission. I am deeply impressed by this young man's sincerity and devotion to his work, which at times has been a little discouraging. However, with the assistance of some lay leaders and his wife, the mission has had an average attendance of 47 persons per Sunday and has now a Church School registration of 66. It is located in a built up community and any sizable growth is not to be expected.

St. Andrew's—West Vincent

This is probably one of the strongest of our missions in the Convocation. The Rev. Kenneth Werner is the Vicar. Their property is now in perfect shape. Their parish house has proved to be a great asset and this might be the last time that I report on this mission since we have all hopes that they will attain parish status in 1957, a tribute to the work of the former Dean, Dr. Richard Lyford, the Vicar and his congregation.

St. Cyril's—Coatesville

Father Ferrell left this mission to accept a position at Howard University and was replaced by Father Cowan, who is also the Vicar of Ascension Mission, West Chester, and lives in West Chester. A charming little church has replaced the old mission building. This building was made possible through a grant from the Diocese supplemented by a $4,000 donation from the Woman's Auxiliary and the Building Fund of the mission itself. The furnishings and the organ came from the Chapel of the Angora School. We have all reason to feel that a good piece of work will be carried on in the years to come.

St. James—Green Ridge

The Rev. John Reeves has continued his excellent work at this mission which is now located in a still growing community. 31 members were Confirmed in this mission last year. They show an average attendance of about 100 persons per Sunday and a Church School numbering 120. In the time that Dr. Reeves has been at St. James he has endeared himself to his congregation. He is blessed with excellent lay leadership which enables him to do such an excellent job.

St. John's—Compass

With the help of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation various projects of maintenance and improvement have been carried out. It was one of the missions visited by the Woman's Auxiliary on their Go-See-Trip in the past year. Mr. Breuninger is in charge of the work and reports an increase in church school interest. It is one of our oldest missions which has served this farming community for over 200 years and it is continuing to play an important part in this part of Chester County.

St. Mark's—Honeybrook

The Rev. Joseph H. Laird is the Vicar. There has been very little population growth in Honeybrook Township for many years. Its population being mainly Amish and Mennonites, the church has not grown in numbers dramatically. However, it is very stable and radiates more and more influence in this community. The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation here, too, is helping in getting the mission property in excellent shape, together with the members of the congregation who have raised funds and paid for much of the improvements and repair work themselves. The plan adopted two years ago to have Mr. Laird and Mr. Breuninger work together in the work at Ascension, Parkesburg, St. John's, Compass, St. Mark's, Honeybrook and St. Mary's, Warwick has proved to be a wise one and Mr. Laird, with his associate, Mr. Breuninger, have brought renewed life to the four missions they serve.

St. John's—Essington

The Rev. Harry R. Johnson, Jr., is continuing to do his excellent job. Even though the community which this church serves was hard hit because of the Westinghouse strike, nevertheless they ended the year not only in the black, but showed a steady increase on all sides. They show a Baptismal record of 24, while 22 new members were added through Confirmation. We understand that this mission is seriously thinking of applying for parish status in the not too far future. We congratulate the Rev. Mr. Johnson and his congregation on the excellent work that is being carried out at St. John's.

St. Luke's—Eddystone

This mission is gradually increasing the amount they are paying to their Vicar. He is now only receiving $1,600 from the Diocese which will even be decreased in 1957. The termite condition was taken care of and the property is reported to be in good shape. A record number of 34 members were Confirmed and 2 persons were received. All in all this mission is doing a fine piece of work in a community which is built up and has very little opportunity for population growth.

St. Mary's—Chester

Father Miller worked hard and presented a Confirmation class of 21 to the Bishop for Confirmation. There has, however, not been any marked increase in the over-all picture of the mission. We hope that Father Miller can receive some more help from his lay people in doing the task assigned to him. The Chapel Committee is doing an excellent job, but is, of course, small in number. I hope that more persons of this mission will show an interest in working for it so that this mission may grow spiritually as well as physically and can assume a little bit more responsibility towards paying the salary of the Vicar.

St. Mary's—Warwick

St. Mary's celebrated its 150th Anniversary last year. Located in a lovely little village along Route 23, there has not been any particular population growth during the last generation and it probably will take some more years before there will be any kind of notable growth in this valley. It has, however, its place in Warwick and with the improvements in the parish house, it is serving the community more and more. Mr. Laird and his committee is seeing to it that the property is kept in good shape and with the help of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation, as well as funds raised by the mission itself, the property is in good condition.

St. Martin's—Marcus Hook

Because of the retirement of the Rev. Melvin M. Heckler, the mission is now in charge of the Rev. Herbert E. Rowe. Mr. Rowe served as associate rector for a few months prior to assuming full responsibility. No report would be complete without expressing our deep appreciation for all the love and devotion that Mr.

Heckler has shown as Vicar of St. Martin's Church. He was loved by his entire congregation and had endeared himself to the community which he served. St. Martin's always will be indebted to this godly man who gave of himself unselfishly and eagerly. We are fortunate to have him succeeded by such a capable young man as Mr. Rowe. The property is in excellent shape and the congregation is active and interested in their church.

St. Peter's—Broomall

This might be the last time that I have to report on this mission since plans are being made to attain parish status in the year 1957. St. Peter's is located in a still rapidly growing community and has accepted the challenge which can be seen by the increased number of Communicants (now being 324), as well as the size of the church school (about 200). Under the leadership of the Rev. Vernon Matthews and his capable laymen, we feel that they should be able to accept the responsibility they are now seeking.

Oxford Mission—Oxford

Last summer the Bishop appointed the Rev. Mr. Lewis Worrall, a Deacon, to assume the responsibility of this mission which is meeting now every Sunday in the Oxford Research Club. There are 40 families interested in this mission and while the average attendance to date is somewhere in the neighborhood of 20 to 25 people, there has been a marked interest in the work of the Episcopal Church in Oxford. We are indebted to the faithful lay people who are assisting us in our work in this part of the Convocation. We are closely watching this mission and studying its potential.

High Meadows—Near Brookhaven

We are still convinced that this is a section of the Convocation which ought to be served by the Episcopal Church. To date we have not been able to secure a suitable site, but our Committee on New Sites will continue to study this problem hoping to come up with a solution.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation has been a great help to the Dean and the missions of the Convocation. The Vicars and the people of the missions are thankful for and appreciate the interest that the Women have shown in their work. It has increased their sense of purpose and determination.

To Mrs. Banks and her Executive Committee and to all the women of the Convocation, I wish to express my deep appreciation.

I also wish to thank the members of my Executive Committee and the Chairmen of the various committees of the Convocation and their members who have given and are giving unselfishly of their time and talent in order that the work of this Convocation may be carried out in keeping with the purpose of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER C. VAN DER HIEL, JR., Dean

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Chester held its two meetings in the Spring and Fall of 1956. We were very happy to have the Rt. Rev. J. Gillespie Armstrong with us at both meetings which were well attended. The meeting in April took place at the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr. The new budget was presented covering the next two years, pledging $5,000.; i.e., $4,000, for the work at Ascension, Parkesburg, St. Mark's, Honeybrook, St. John's, Compass, St. Mary's, Warwick, and $1,000, for the Emergency Fund.

Early in the spring at the suggestion of Dean Van der Heil, a go-see trip to these four Missions was made by the Executive Committee.

The fall meeting in October was held at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont. This meeting was one of great significance. The Rev. Harry Johnson, Jr., Vicar of St. John's Mission, Essington, introduced our missionaries who gave us a most educational program. Colored slides of all the Missions of the Convocation of Chester were shown by Mr. Laird with explanatory comments by Mr. Breuninger. The afternoon meeting consisted of a brief business meeting, an inspiring talk by the Dean and constructive comments by Mrs. Edward Parnum on the relationship between the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Chester and the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The excellent response from the Parish and Mission branches is most gratifying and encouraging and also we are most grateful to these two Parishes for their gracious hospitality.

ELEANOR M. BANKS,

President

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The Spring Meeting of the Convocation was in truth an all day meeting. It began at ten o'clock at St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, with the Holy Communion celebrated by Bishop Armstrong with special prayers for the Rev. Neville Herbert Caley, a former Dean of the Convocation. A resolution, memorializing the late Dean Caley, was presented, which was ordered filed, and a copy forwarded to Mrs. Caley, together with a token of the Convocation's appreciation of the work and leadership of her husband. The Rev. George A. Trowbridge, having completed a four year term as Dean and not standing for re-election, the Nominating Committee presented a slate. There being no others, nominations were closed, and the Secretary was instructed to cast one ballot, and the following were declared elected: Secretary, the Rev. William T. Warren; Treasurer, Henry Lear; Dean, the Rev. William J. Dietrich, Jr. The Rev. Henry Kaufmann and Mr. Lawrence Thomason were elected Convocation Representatives to the Executive Council. Mr. Sidney Dexter reported briefly on surveys and studies made by the Convocation Planning Committee and introduced the Rev. Daniel Stevick, who displayed and explained a map developed by himself and Mr. Alger Beal, locating possible future Church sites in Lower Bucks County and in Philadelphia's Far Northeast. A resolution of tribute to the Rev. George A. Trowbridge, retiring Dean, was introduced and unanimously passed by a rising vote. At 12:30 the members of the Convocation and the Woman's Auxiliary boarded buses for a tour of the five Mission Stations in Lower Bucks County. A progressive luncheon was served at St. Andrew's, Somerton, and Christ Church, Eddington, and tea at St. Paul's, Levittown, the last stop on the tour. The Vicars of Fallsington and Hulmeville acted as guides, pointing out the developments and strategic sites along the way.

The Convocation met for its Fall meeting on Tuesday, October 9th, at St. Peter's Church, Germantown. On the completion of routine business and introduction of new clergy, the Dean called upon the Vicars for summary reports on the work in the Missions; each report interestingly augmented with pictures, charts and other illustrative material. Mr. Lawrence Thomason, Warden of St. Andrew's in the Field, Somerton, then presented, in accordance with Canon 11, as the first step in the process of a mission seeking Parish status, a letter petitioning for Convocation approval of such status. Approval was enthusiastically given and the Executive Council was respectfully requested to take favorable action. After a brief report on the developments in Philadelphia's Far Northeast, the Rev. Albert M. Holloway, Rector of Trinity Church, Oxford, requested permission to survey and canvass the area in and around Southampton in the interest of reactivating a sometime Diocesan Mission in that place. After discussion, permission was granted with the meeting's blessing. Bishop Hart then addressed the meeting on the proposed Diocesan Capital Funds Campaign to be held during the coming winter. The meeting adjourned for dinner at 6:35. The evening program included an address by Capt. William Paddock of the Church Army and the showing of a film "Mobile Ministry", a thrilling presentation of the Church ministering to the migrant construction crews building the vast new plants and the super highways of our rapidly developing land. Interest was increased by the fact that our guest Speaker was the hero of "Mobile Ministry".

A comparison of the statistical report with previous years clearly indicates the continued growth and development of the Missions in this Convocation. In fact, one has grown and developed itself right out of the Mission status. St. Andrew's in the Field, Somerton, having secured the approval of Convocation, has been proceeding with its petition for admission to the Diocese as a Parish. We hope that Diocesan Convention will seat St. Andrew's as a Parish in 1957. With its large number of baptisms, confirmations, and pupils in the Church School, it should, from the very start, be one of the strong Parishes of the Diocese.

After employing all manner of make shifts—a tent pitched in the Churchyard, a school bus, as auxiliary classroom space for its growing Church School (over 400)—St. Paul's, Levittown, sees some daylight on its expansion problem. Plans are now being formulated to finance and build the undercroft of a future Parish House. This, it is hoped, will give St. Paul's the much needed space more quickly and at fractional cost of the Parish House originally projected. The walls of the undercroft will be properly engineered to act as the foundation for a future Parish House. Present indications are that the St. Paul's of the future will require and make good use of a two story Parish House. The communicant list has grown to over five hundred. One of the enhancements to the property has been the laying of cork flooring throughout the entire Church and Rooms for use by the men of the Mission.

Grace Church, Hulmeville, which recently celebrated its 125th Anniversary, continues on its happy and prospering way. Combined funds, from the Mission's treasury, a gift from the Bishop, and a loan from the Diocese, to the extent of $7,000 make possible necessary repairs and attractive improvements in the Church building. By the do-it-yourself method, which has been such an integral part of Grace Church, this sum has been stretched over many jobs. The most notable improvements have been the restuccoing of the exterior and the replastering and decoration of the interior walls. Also, a handsome tile floor has been laid. Plans are now developing for the renovation of the Sanctuary and the Choir. A warm spirit of Christian fellowship pervades this place.

At Christ Church, Eddington, the need for repairs and improvements continues. But these are always a challenge and incentive, never a frustration to these loyal and earnest people. To find accommodations for the continually growing Church School, the unused undercroft of the Church had to be pressed into service. Though the floor in this room is not dangerous, it is far from good and the PTA of the Church School is busily engaged in raising the funds for a new floor, while the Married Couples Club ("The Tween Agers") is hopeful of raising sufficient money by a Spring Minstrel to soundproof the ceiling of the undercroft. This soundproofing is necessary so that the singing and the choral speaking of the children in the basement will not interfere with the Church Service held on the floor above at the same hour—and vice versa. What price growth!

D (deferred) Day for All Saints', Fallsington, came in the late summer of 1956 when ground was broken for a long awaited Parish House. After some early delay, due to the steel strike, the work has gone forward rapidly under the prodding of the Vicar toward an early completion. The new building is located at an attractive distance back from and parallel to Main Street. As for architectural type, it might be called a split level Parish House with basement and ground floor. Its dimensions are 66 by 52 feet, built of concrete block with steel floor supports and stucco exterior. The cost of the operation is approximately $65,000, provided by Diocesan funds. The kitchen equipment will come from an allocation of $600 made by the Convocation's Woman's Auxiliary. The completion of this sorely needed building will give great impetus to increased growth and development.

Permission having been granted by the Convocation to the Rev. Albert M. Holloway to survey and canvass the area around Southampton in the interest of reactivation of the Mission in that place, he lost no time. On the evening of October 18th, twenty-five persons met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Barfoot, Jr. and four days later launched a door to door canvass in search of Episcopal families. The Rev. Henry J. Sharp was loaned by Bishop Hart to assist in this work. On November 19th at a meeting attended by Bishop Armstrong, the Dean and the Rev. Messrs. Holloway and Sharp, the canvassers enthusiastically reported contact with 89 Episcopal families with more than 70 children of Church School age and a number of infants awaiting baptism. At this meeting a tentative six month budget was set up, which was subsequently approved and underwritten by the Department of Missions. Services were begun in rented rooms in the Elementary School on December 9th by the Rev. Mr. Holloway, who has continued weekly ministrations. Bishop Hart celebrated the Holy Communion on Christmas Day. Attendance at the services and Church School has steadily increased. The congregation has petitioned the Bishop to be accepted as an organized Mission of the Diocese and a site for a future Church is being sought.

Though we are profoundly happy over the material progress in our Missions, we are singularly proud of the spirit and devotion of the men and women who comprise them. No labor is too arduous nor difficult for them to undertake and bring to successful conclusion. Particularly is this true of the men. Every Mission can point with pride to innumerable jobs "done by the men" —carpentry, painting, cement work, etc. Some of these groups meet weekly to repair and improve the Mission property. In this way top value is realized from every dollar appropriated. This is the spirit of our Missions—is it any wonder that they thrive and progress?

A fresh spirit has come to the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation. We count ourselves most fortunate in having the support in the work of the Convocation of Mrs. Charles Myers, the new President of the Auxiliary, whose report is submitted herewith.

We cannot close this report without a word of tribute to the former Dean, the Rev. George A. Trowbridge, for the outstanding service he rendered the Convocation during the four years of his office. Dr. Trowbridge, by broadening the base of responsibility, not only enkindled the interest of many persons in the Missions, but by his democratic methods gave to the Vicars and the people in the Missions a profound sense of belonging.

Dean

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The Convocation of Norristown has continued to benefit this year by the large population growth which is affecting this part of our Diocese and there is a good chance that this will continue for some time. With the forthcoming Diocesan Campaign for Capital Funds and the recognition of the fact that we have an opportunity and an obligation to these growing communities, we will spend some of this money wisely among these people for the growth of our Diocese and the Kingdom of God.

Epiphany Church, Royersford has shown a remarkable upward surge under the leadership of the new Vicar, the Reverend Earl H. Brill. The people of Epiphany are developing the Mission to meet the new opportunities of a community that is experiencing the advent of new people due to the arrival of new industry in the community. The Vicarage has been thoroughly renovated on the inside and repaired on the outside and this improvement together with the improvements to the church in the last few years has not only improved the morale of the people of the Mission but has helped them to bring back some who had wandered away and to attract some new people.

Trinity Church Gulph Mills, under the new Vicar the Reverend Hayward B. Crewe has continued to show a good growth. The Diocese has purchased a new Vicarage in one of the developments close to the church and some improvements have been made to the church building. The Vicar and the people have established a Nursery School for the community and this has done the Mission a lot of good.

St. Anne, Willow Grove through the efforts of the Vicar, the Reverend Harold A. Hopkins and the people, has shown more growth than it has for some years. More people are attending the services and the Church School and the people and the Vicar are eagerly looking forward to the new building which will be necessary to accommodate them. They are planning to become a Parish in the near future.

The Church of the Good Shepherd, Hilltown, is continuing its remarkable progress under the able leadership of the Reverend Dr. Nathaniel B. Groton. Last year the church was enlarged and this year a fine new parish house has been erected. The Mission is serving the people of the community to a much greater extent in these expanded facilities. With the further addition of a paved drive and parking area, the Mission and its people will enlarge their field of labor.

St. Philip-in-the-Field, Oreland, had the stimulating experience of moving into their new church building during the year. This experience has helped this Mission, which has been growing so fast during the last few years, to really feel its justified success. The Reverend Joseph Tatnall, who was the Vicar for several years, moved from the Diocese during the year, and his successor, the Reverend Edward E. Elliott, has brought new talent and enthusiasm to the work. The people of the Mission, in their beautiful new church building, have made such rapid strides that they are expecting to become a Parish during the next year.

The Diocese and Convocation are now in the process of planning a new work at King of Prussia. Whether this work will be undertaken by one of the neighboring Parishes or by the Diocese has not yet been determined but with the growth of this whole community we must do something quickly or our opportunity will be gone.

A good measure of credit must be given to the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation for the successes we have experienced. These wonderful women have planned and worked and given of their time and means to make possible some of the advances we have experienced, and we thank them and ask that they continue to help us do the Lord's work in this Convocation.

God has blessed us richly during this year, and we thank Him.

HERBERT W. JONES

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY TO THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

Two regular meetings were held during the year.

The attendance was most gratifying, 150 to 160 being present at each service.

Two executive meetings, two educational days and two quiet days were conducted during the year.

The Spring meeting was held May 4th at the Conference Centre, Radnor. Rev. Mr. Robert Nelson Back addressed the meeting on Christians in the Suburbs. Mrs. Harry E. Nixon was elected President; Mrs. G. Frederick Grieb, Vice President.

The Fall meeting was held at St. Philip in the Fields, Oreland on date of October 4th. A gift of $1,000 was presented to the church of St. Philip. Mrs. James G. Ludwig, III, delivered an inspiring address on the History, Facts and Geographic Location of the Norristown Convocation.

The first Educational Day was planned by Mrs. G. Frederick Grieb and was held at the Church of the Saviour, Jenkintown. The Rev. Mr. James G. Ludwig, III, Rev. Mr. Robert Nelson Back and Rev. Mr. Thoron Vallee conducted an excellent panel on A Christian in the World Today.

The second Educational Day was at St. Thomas Church, Whitemarsh. Rev. Mr. Ludwig explained the service of Holy Communion and it was celebrated by Rev. Mr. MacColl and Mr. Ludwig.

The afternoon session was conducted by Mrs. Herbert Barron, the newly appointed Religious Education Chairman of the Convocation.

Mrs. Ludwig presented new materials from the National Institute, Script for the family, audio-visual program with a panel arranged by the Women's Evening Auxiliary of St. Paul's Church, Elkins Park. This was regarded as a most helpful program.

A most inspiring address on Prayer and Growth was delivered by Rev. Dr. John Robins Hart.

Two Quiet Days were held at St. Margaret's House.

No report of the activities of the Norristown Convocation would be complete without an expressing of thanks to Mrs. H. K. Partridge and Mrs. Lloyd F. Gerhes, retiring President and Vice President for their help and guidance during the past three years.

Reports from the Vicars were most encouraging.

The auxiliary also deeply appreciates the leadership of Dean Jones.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

It is encouraging to be able to report that in this densely populated urban convocation of ours there has been some growth during the past year. It is becoming more and more evident that concentrated populations present the Church with problems which at least up to this moment remain unsolved. The recognition however that such problems exist will do much toward their ultimate solution. The very fact that there have been very few changes in the clergy of the convocation is a step in the right direction. We need to have devoted, hard-working men to staff these difficult missions and parishes; men who are willing to give years of continuous work in one location. Nothing is more discouraging to a struggling congregation than to have their priest after a year or two leave them for "greener pastures."

For many years one of these difficult stations has been at Third and Dauphin, St. Barnabas. I am happy to say that there is renewed activity there now. The Rev. Harry M. Blair, a perpetual deacon working under the Dean, is in charge. The priestly duties are being very ably administered by Fr. Treleaven of St. Luke's, which is the nearest parish to St. Barnabas. This arrangement has mutual benefits both to the Mission and to St. Lukes. Mr. Blair serves as Deacon at the late Celebration at St. Lukes.

The recreation facilities at St. Barnabas have been completely refurbished and are in constant use throughout the week as well as Sunday evening. Mr. Blair has a corps of men from the mission to help in the supervision. Mr. Jans from the Lighthouse on Lehigh Avenue has given much valuable leadership and suggestion. Some of the afternoon activities are run by the Lighthouse. The neighbors have rallied to the aid of the mission and much has been accomplished. Over two hundred and fifty children and adults use the building during the week. More than half that number attend some form of worship service each week. You can, from this report, understand why I have devoted the bulk of this report to this work. At long last it seems as though some real work will again be done at St. Barnabas.

The Rev. George Kahlbaugh has left St. Bartholomew's to go to Saratoga, N. Y. His place is being filled very ably by the Rev. Henry Sharp. His people have begun to rally about him and we are sure some progress can be reported by next year.

The Spring meeting of the convocation was held at St. Luke's Church. In the Fall we took a "Go-And-See" bus trip to several of our parishes and missions. It turned out to be so profitable that those who participated have asked for another one next Fall, stopping at other points of call. It had two primary results. It missions are and what they are doing. It also quite definitely engave many people a chance to see for the first time where these couraged those stations which we visited.

Again we thank the ladies for their fine work. We can always count on them to do more than their share in any undertaking.

Respectfully

DAVID O. TRAUGER

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

St. Elisabeth's is the only mission in the Convocation of South Philadelphia. It has had a successful year. More and more work is being done in the neighborhood and a Bible Study Class for children is held on Friday afternoons. St. Elisabeth's, through an inheritance, has been able to do some much-needed repairs on the church, parish house and rectory. The Vicar, the Rev. Theron A. Vallee, reports that, while the work has progressed slowly, it will soon be finished.

The Convocation met in April at the Memorial Church of St. Paul. It elected as Clerical Representative to the Executive Council, the Rev. J. Aubrey Cragg, Vicar of the Chapel of Prince of Peace, and, as Lay Representative, Dr. Raymond Snyder of St. Peter's Church. The October meeting was held in the beautiful new Memorial Room of the Church of the Holy Trinity.

We regret to report that our Convocation has lost the services of two of its faithful priests, the Rev. Dr. John R. Logan, Sr., and the Rev. Dr. J. DaCosta Harewood, who have resigned their charges. Dr. Logan has served in the Convocation since 1909, first as Vicar of the Chapel of St. Simon the Cyrenian, of the Parish of the Holy Apostles, and, since 1945, as Rector of St. Simon's. He was the senior priest of the Convocation and a member of a number of committees of the Diocese. Dr. Harewood was Vicar of St. Philip's. Under his leadership the mission became a parish in 1954 and Dr. Harewood was its first Rector. To these devoted leaders of our Church we wish good health, happiness and years of continued usefulness to the Church.

We were glad to be able to send twenty young people from the churches and mission of our Convocation to the Summer Conference for Youths of the Church, held at the Conference Center during June and July. The representatives of these young people reported on their experiences and told of the inspiration and help that they had received from the Conference.

We extend our hearty congratulations to the Rev. John R. Logan, Jr., on his election to succeed his father as Rector of St. Simon the Cyrenian. We wish for him a very successful rectorship.

We welcome to our meetings the Rev. K. O. Grannum, the newly elected Rector of St. Philip's Church, and we pray that his ministry will be a very fruitful one.

Without the able assistance of the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of South Philadelphia we could not have accomplished as much work as we have and we again thank the women for their good work and wish them much success in the carrying out of their plans for the year ahead.

As Dean, in addition to my duties as Rector of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, I have again celebrated Holy Communion in St. Paul's Chapel at the U. S. Naval Base, Philadelphia, and continued as Chaplain to the Episcopalians who have been patients at two South Philadelphia Hospitals.

THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

During the past year, the three Missions of this Convocation have made great strides in advancing the work of the Church, and we are happy to give the following reports.

St. Monica's Mission: Under the able guidance of the Vicar, the Rev. Matthew W. Davies, all the organizations and guilds participated in furthering the work of the Mission, with the gratifying result that $1,046.64 was raised by their efforts.

The Woman's Auxiliary sponsored the Annual Lawn Fete, as well as the sale of Christmas Cards, which was a big help financially.

The Men's Fellowship sponsored a Banquet in honor of Mr. William O. Morris, who has been Treasurer of the Mission for the past twenty years. The affair was a very great success. The Guilds presented to the Church a "Sanctus Bell of Three Tiers" in appreciation of the splendid work of Mr. Morris. The Fellowship gave him a fine Plaque.

The Rector's Aid Guild has undertaken the responsibility of paying the taxes and water rent of the Vicarage, which is deeply appreciated.

The Altar Guild had two Rummage Sales during the year—one in the Spring and one in the Winter. The funds thus raised take care of the Altar needs of the Mission.

The Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Artrianna Sisco, has done a splendid work, and has rendered quite a few new Anthems with great success. The Boy Scout Troop shows great promise with an increasing membership and we are proud of the enthusiasm they show.

And last, but by no means least, the Church School, with its dedicated Teachers and Helpers, is progressing far beyond our expectations. They are using the Seabury Series, with tremendous success.

There were 160 Services held in St. Monica's, with a total attendance of of 9470 persons. We hold three services each Sunday, at 8:00 A.M., 9:00 A.M. and 11:00 A.M.

We submit the following record of the activities of the Mission:

35 Baptisms,
27 Confirmations,
7 Marriages,
1 Burial,
398 Communicants,
118 Families,
60 Average Attendance,
74 Sunday School Scholars,
13 Sunday School Teachers and Officers, with Offerings and Pledges in the amount of $4,034.49 and contribution received from the Diocese, of $1,650.00.

St. Cyprian's Episcopal Church: From the standpoint of the number of persons attending the services of public worship, the average is about 73 per Sunday, which is slightly lower than the previous year. At the same time however, we have discovered that fewer dedicated persons are capable of doing equally as much—and in some cases even more—than many who are not so dedicated.

In the year 1956, St. Cyprian's over-paid its accepted Missionary Quota, and its total income for the year reached a mark which exceeded $9,000.00, considerably higher than in any previous year.

The congregation has become more alert to the feeling that it owes God far more than it has been giving. The Vicar last year pledged in accordance with the principle of tithing, and since then members of the Chapel Committee and others, have conscientiously striven to reach that point in personal giving where a true kinship with the sacrifice of the Master is ultimately experienced. The result has been most encouraging. Some members of the congregation have realized that the work of building and spreading the Kingdom is a job which is not exclusively the work of the Vicar, and have therefore begun a work of encouraging others to be mindful of their Christian obligations and duties. From out of the congregation has come the suggestion which is now in practice, that in each service of public worship, one minute be given to silent prayer for members who are absent, and for greater dedication on the part of those who are present.

From a standpoint therefore, of deepening and heightening the spiritual life of the core of this Christian Fellowship, the Vicar feels that there has been adequate demonstration of same during the past year.

The Woman's Auxiliary and its branches, St. Agnes Guild and St. Bridget's Guild, contributed towards the Church's Budget last year, a figure slightly above $500.00.

The Men's Club contributed $264.00.

The Y.P.F. sponsored affairs to finance the Sunday "Bulletin," and also to keep the Vicar's Office supplied with secretarial material as well as services. Last year, there were two Church-wide drives for the raising of funds. The ORGAN FUND drive took place after Easter, and closed in the month of June. From this drive we now have in our Treasury towards the cost of our new Organ, the sum of $1,512.00.

The Annual Church Bazaar is the final drive of the year, to see if the deficit with which we commenced the year could be replaced by a "balance," enabling us to begin 1957 with something on hand. This, I am happy to report, has been accomplished.

The dread of Re-Development is never entirely out of the minds of our members. Some still believe—or at least try to believe—that it will not happen in our time. Others have taken the warning to heart and have sought homes elsewhere and have moved. The area is definitely conscious of the fact that Re-Development is inevitable. As a consequence, St. Cyprian's has been adversely affected in that we are constantly transferring members to other sections of the city, but not receiving transfers to counterbalance these.

Our highest endeavor is in strengthening the spiritual bond of those who are still with us, so that in the turmoil of moving and change, there will be a body bound together with such security as to enable us to withstand the transplanting without withering.

The following is a record of the activities of St. Cyprian's during the year 1956:

11 Baptisms,	63 Families,
16 Confirmations,	70 Average attendance,
3 Marriages,	60 Sunday School Scholars,
178 Communicants,	9 Sunday School Teachers and Officers.

And Annual Offerings and Pledges in the amount of $7,072.05.

St. Titus Mission, Elmwood: For sixty years the Mission of St. Titus has worked to spread the Kingdom of God—within its own area and as best it could, to all nations. The spiritual effectiveness of this work can not be measured in a material way, but statistics may perhaps be used to indicate what progress has been made within the past year.

In 1954, total attendance at all services was 1,792; in 1955 there was an increase to 4,381; and in 1956 total attendance increased to 5,353. On Sunday, February 5th, the Mission celebrated the Feast of its Patronal Saint, with eight clergy and two lay readers, who had either past or current connection with the Mission, participating in the services.

During Lent Students of the Philadelphia Divinity School cooperated as in the previous year, by aiding in the presentation of a program—based this year on Dr. Ruel Howe's Book, "Man's need, and God's action". The response of the members of the Mission was gratifying—particularly so in facing the problems that are so vital today in the Convocation of West Philadelphia. On Trinity Sunday Bishop Hart visited the Mission at 11:00 o'clock and confirmed six persons, and admitted one from the Russian Orthodox Communion.

In the summer of 1955 (June-August) total attendance at all services (504) more than doubled the preceding summer period (205) and the trend continued in 1956 with attendance (1031) being better than twice that of the same period of 1955. For the first time St. Titus successfully continued its Church School through the summer months.

The numerous Mission organizations continued to function with renewed vigor. As in past years, several hampers of food were delivered to the Home of the Merciful Saviour at Thanksgiving, and at Christmas 100 Gift Packages were prepared for distribution to the Philadelphia General Hospital. Participation in Diocesan and Convocation activities by the various organizations of St. Titus Mission has continued to increase during the past year.

Dissemination of information in written form, has for many years been a major problem at St. Titus. During 1956 this problem was largely solved by the efforts of Mrs. Harry West Jones, who—although not a member of St. Titus—procured for the Mission a gift of money sufficient to purchase a mimeograph machine.

The people of St. Titus have shown an increasing awareness of the meaning of "stewardship". It is encouraging to note that the income of the Mission has increased by more than 50% in the last two years—from $2,230 to $3,385. Unfortunately, its budget has increased by more than 65%—from $2,099 to $3,471. This increase reflects an increase of money spent for the work of the Church outside of the Mission itself.

There are still obstacles to overcome at St. Titus, but there has been progress—both spiritually and materially. To spread Christ's Kingdom in the Eastwick area of Philadelphia, is not only a challenge but a tremendous opportunity.

I give you a report of the activities of the mission for the year 1956:

7 Baptisms,	42 Families
6 Confirmations,	64 Average attendance,
— Marriages,	48 Church School Scholars,
4 Burials,	9 Church School Teachers and Officers
73 Communicants,	1 Received at the Mission.

With Offerings and Pledges in the amount of $3,384.34.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

We had our three usual Convocation meetings:—

1. Education day, January 19 at Saint James' Church, Kingsessing.

The Rev. James Gilbert and Mrs. James G. Ludwig were our speakers.

2. Our Spring meeting, where we joined the men of the Convocation in the evening for dinner, was on April 12 at St. James' Church, Kingsessing.

Our speaker was Sister Dorothea of St. Mark's Church, who showed us beautiful colored slides. Her pictures were taken during a visit to religious houses in the British Isles.

3. Our Fall meeting was held at Epiphany Church, Sherwood, when our speaker was Mrs. Edward Parnum, President of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Diocese of Pennsylvania. We joined the men for dinner and the evening meeting.

Our Quiet Day, this year, was held at St. Andrew's Church, 36th and Baring Sts. The Rev. Edward P. Rementer was Conductor of the Meditations.

The annual Card Party and Fashion Show added $81.39 to our treasury.

The proceeds from a Book Review by Mrs. Wells amounted to $41.75.

As is our regular procedure, we again distributed Coin Cards for use during the summer months, and netted $79.10.

In response to an appeal from Father Washington, we paid for one of two units required for heating the basement at St. Cyprian's. The cost was $62.30.

(This item does not appear on our financial statement for 1956. Payment was made too late.)

We extend our sincere thanks to the Dean, Rectors and Vicars of the West Philadelphia Convocation for their continued interest and co-operation in the work of our Missions.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

Annual Report of 1956

During 1956 the department has continued its efforts to assist the parishes of the diocese in their task of Christian Education at all levels. But as in the past few years the emphasis of most of its work has been of necessity in relation to the implementing of the teaching of the Seabury Series, particularly in the field of leadership training. A team from the Division of Leadership Training of the National Department of Christian Education was in the diocese for a week in September and held meetings for the clergy and directors of Christian Education; superintendents of Church Schools; the Leadership Training Division and with the diocesan department. Growing out of that week, a series of leadership training conferences have been held and others planned for both teachers of the Seabury Series and for teachers using other material.

The department at its May meeting accepted the recommendation of the Executive Committee that, "the department should be reorganized in order to carry on its work more effectively," and authorized the Executive Committee to proceed with same. The organization of the department now parallels the organization of the national department. The various committees of the department being placed in four divisions of Adult, Youth, Children's and Leadership Training under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. Stanley Rogers, the Rev. Robert N. Back, Mrs. George C. Bland and the Rev. H. Lawrence Whittemore, Jr., respectively.

In July the resignation of Mrs. J. Peter Dexheimer as assistant to the Executive Secretary was accepted with great regret. Although paid on a part-time basis, Mrs. Dexheimer gave unstintingly of her time and her energies and added immeasureably to the effectiveness of the department. On the Fifteenth of August Mrs. Dorothy B. Vaughn came up from Washington to join the staff and is already proving herself a very valuable member of the team in Room 30.

ADULT DIVISION

Mrs. C. Stanley Rogers, Chairman

Two multi-parish Parish Life Conferences were held by the department but several parish ones were held at which the executive secretary served as observer.

Preparations were begun for the first Parish Life Mission to be held in this diocese. It will be held at St. George's, Ardmore in January with the executive secretary serving with the Rev. Alfred Persons of the National Department as the leadership team.

This newly organized division of the department began a study of adult education in the diocese and is preparing a pamphlet to provide more help and resources in the planning of a total parish educational program.

CHILDREN'S DIVISION

Mrs. George C. Bland, Chairman

Church School Committee

Prepared or authorized the preparation of the three annual bulletins, Mission Study—1956, Holy Week-Easter, and Advent-Christmas.

Served as the consultants at the annual Church School Institute exhibit and counselling period, Monday, October 1st, at the Christian Association.

Church School-by-Mail

There are 206 children now enrolled in the Church School by Mail, with 7 parishes actively participating in the program. Advent, Kennett Square has 88; Ascension, West Chester 26; St. John, Concord 8; St. James, Downingtown 19; St. John, Compass 28; St. Mark, Honeybrook 9; St. Mary, Warwick 8. Others are scattered through the districts of Upper Black Eddy, New Hope, Coatesville, Paoli, and West Chester. Sixty-six new children were added during the year and forty-three became affiliated with regular Sunday Schools.

Thirteen families were given social service through the participating parishes.

A letter of appeal for additional scholarships was sent out, bringing the total scholarships by the end of the year to 252.

A successful annual meeting of the rural clergy was held in September at the Conference Center when encouraging reports were given by the active participating parishes and those not yet active were encouraged to enter into the work.

Guild of the Christ Child

The use of this educational material by parents of the preschool child (birth to 4 years) initiates family participation in Christian Education.

Ten new Guilds were established during 1956, bringing the present total in the diocese to forty-six.

Special Offerings Committee

We are very happy to report that the Church School Missionary Offering for 1956 amounted to $32,464.71 from 169 parishes and missions. This, despite the fact this offering no longer counts on the quota. The offering was presented on Sunday, March 27th at the Episcopal Academy. A pageant written by Miss Margaret Smythe was to have been part of the Presentation Service, but it had to be held indoors due to rain and the facilities were too limited for the actual pageant to take place although the narration was read.

The Advent Offering of $759.67 from 21 parishes and missions was for the purchase of land to build a church in Oxford.

The Birthday Thank Offering for 1956 amounted to $102.09 from 8 parishes and missions.

Vacation Church School Committee

Each year sees a larger number of suburban and semi-rural and rural parishes including the Vacation Church School in their educational plans. This shows an awareness of many of the difficulties of our educational task in the traditional Sunday morning setting and the willingness to adventure in other means.

Weekday Religious Education Committee

We participated in a study of "Religion and Public Education" under the Philadelphia Council of Churches. This study was centered around a study document prepared in a national conference on Religion and Public Education conducted by the National Council of Churches in St. Louis, Missouri, November 6-8, 1955. The ten problems considered at the St. Louis Conference formed the basis for the discussion of the local group, which met for three hours, once a month for eight months.

The purpose of the local group was to review the ten problems raised by the national Conference, to prepare findings on them as they applied specifically to the Philadelphia situation, and to recommend to the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches appropriate action to implement its findings.

YOUTH DIVISION

The Rev. Robert Nelson Back, Chairman

The Youth Division is composed of clergy, district advisors, and other interested lay people. The Commission works in conjunction with the Youth Council which is an elected body of diocesan young people.

During the year 1956, a Parish Life Conference was held for the Youth Council January 27, 28 and 29 at the Conference Center.

The Annual Youth Service was held at Old Christ Church, Quinquagesima Sunday, with Bishop Roberts preaching. A reception was held in the Community House following. More than 800 attended the Service and reception.

The chairman of the Division and the executive secretary of the department attended the provincial meeting at Claggett Center, Diocese of Maryland with representative diocesan young people April 12, 13 and 14.

Six members of the Division attended a provincial adult conference at Rehoboth, Diocese of Delaware, May 1-3.

The Annual Youth Convention convened Saturday, May 5 at the Conference Center. Approximately 450 young people attended and the Rev. James R. MacColl spoke on the theme, "Power to Witness in Christian Citizenship".

Two Senior High Youth Conferences were held again this year, June 17-23 and June 24-30. The Rev. Robert N. Back was Dean and the Rev. Philemon F. Sturges Chaplain at the first conference. The Rev. Peter C. Van der Hiel was Dean and the Rev. Francis P. Davis Chaplain at the second conference. Both conferences were filled to capacity with a stand-by list for the second.

Our first Junior High Conference was held this year for the eighth and ninth grades. The Rev. A. Benjamin Narbeth was Dean. This was quickly filled to capacity and many had to be turned away showing there is a real need for more work in this field.

The Youth Council met September 7-9 at the Conference Center. Over-all plans for 1956-57 were considered. The Fall issue was prepared and plans for a new format discussed for the YOUTH GUIDE, and adopted. District Youth Meetings were planned.

Ten District Youth Meetings were held October 7. The theme was, "Dig the Why—Gal and Guy—of the Power to Witness." Total attendance was approximately 1300.

Three issues of the YOUTH GUIDE were published during the year with the last issue in the form of a Notebook. Subsequent issues will include study units and other pertinent material which can be inserted in the Youth Guide Notebook.

Summer Conference Reunions for both Senior and Junior High Conferences were held December 21 and 22.

Leadership Training Division

The Rev. H. Lawrence Whittemore, Jr., Chairman

This division serves all the divisions of the department and the chairman of each division with other members-at-large compose its personnel. The following are leadership training events.

February 4, 1956—Conference Center—One day Conference on the use of the Bible as resource in teaching.

May 12, 1956—Conference Center—One day Conference for parish teacher training teams. Preparation for using the Seabury Series.

September 17-21—Visit of the Team from the National Department of Christian Education. Day Conferences for Clergy and Directors of Christian Education; Evening session for Superintendents; Evening session on follow-up of Parish Life Conferences; Day Conferences with the Leadership Training Division and the Department of Christian Education.

Church School Institute, October 1, 1956 at the Christian Association. Exhibit of Church School materials and related aids and resources. This was followed by a dinner meeting with Mrs. Harold C. Kelleran of the Diocese of Washington speaking on the Church's Ministry to Teachers.

Supervisors Conference, for those parishes using the Seabury Series, October 20, at the Conference Center. The division accepting as a premise that the diocese cannot assume the responsibility to train more than 5000 leaders set up a series of conferences to train parish trainers (and/or supervisors) of Church School teachers.

November 3 at the Conference Center for those parishes using other Church School material.

Audio-Visual Aids

Our library continued to expand very rapidly. New materials recommended for use with the Seabury Series were purchased during the year. Also added to the library this year, were many of the visual aids recommended in the Episcopal Young Churchmen's Notebook, for use by our parish youth groups. In addition, visual aids are being used to supplement Teacher Training programs on the parish level, in Parents Classes and in Mission Study programs.

During 1956, fifty-four parishes were members of our Co-operative Audio-Visual Plan. This number is higher than ever before.

Recommended Christian Education materials for Church Schools, Youth and Adults are in the department library and counselling in Church School curriculum planning and help in planning all areas of parish educational work goes on continuously.

That the department is able to make so good a report is thanks to the many men and women who have given of their time and energies to staff the many committees through whom so much of the work of the department is carried on, and to the Herculean labours of the staff in Room 30 who somehow is always able to have things ready for a committee when it sits down, and is able to keep all the committees happy and never confuses one with another.

Respectfully submitted,

P. F. STURGES,
Chairman

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS OF THE DIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA

The dedicated laity and clergy referred to in last year's report have been joined in the Department by others equally as concerned. This has greatly strengthened the Department and has produced gratifying results. It will be a continuing aim of the Department to add to its rolls people who can contribute usefully to its work and deliberations.

Following is a report of the divisions of the Department:

Division of Health and Welfare

A special committee on Alcoholism, under the chairmanship of the Rev. Jerry Carpenter, was appointed. This resulted in a well attended Institute on "The Drinking Problem and the Problem Drinker" in February, 1956.

A continuing study seeks to determine how this problem can be handled best at the parish level. With the cooperation of Mrs. Samuel Kirkpatrick and her Committee of the Women's Auxiliary, many parishes have availed themselves of the facilities of the committee. A follow up Institute on "Social Drinking" will be held on March 4th.

A brochure is in preparation which will list and briefly describe all church related agencies in the diocese. Mrs. Lennox Moak who is experienced in this sort of work is voluntarily writing this brochure. It is now well along.

The Division ordered 1500 copies of "Where To Turn", a directory published by the Health and Welfare Council of Philadelphia. Bound into these copies is a list of Episcopal agencies related to the church in this diocese. These have been distributed to the clergy and to the Women's Auxiliary in each parish. We have been told from several sources that it has proven helpful.

Through the Division, a Corporate Communion at Christ Church has been arranged for Episcopalians attending the National Conference on Social Welfare. This will be held at 8:00 A.M., May 24th.

The Rev. Mr. Arthur Elcombe is chairman of the Committee on Narcotics. This committee grew out of the Department meeting last June at Episcopal Hospital which was addressed by Mr. Randolph Wise, Commissioner of the Philadelphia Department of Welfare. At the moment, work among the involuntary addicts is commanding most of the attention of the committee. An understanding of the law involved will be acquired by the committee.

Division of Christian Citizenship

While handicapped by the recent illness of the chairman, Mr. Edward S. Morris, this Division has made some very constructive moves during 1956.

A survey—not yet quite completed—has been made among institutions, related in any way to the church, as to their policies on admissions of people of different races.

Perhaps the most significant effort has been, under the chairmanship of Mr. Henry Dolan, in the area of "A Christian and His Daily Work." A small group of concerned laity held a stimulating dinner meeting on January 10th of this year which was the result of much planning and deliberation during 1956. This program will be a continuing one.

Division of World Relief and Church Cooperation

Under the effective co-chairmanship of Mr. Martin P. Snyder and the Rev. James R. MacColl, and with the untiring effort and devotion of the Department Secretary, Miss Florence Davies, the principal effort of this Division has been devoted to the Refugee Program.

The federal Refugee Relief Act of 1953 expired at the end of 1956, with approximately 190,000 visas granted out of the permitted number of 209,000. It may be recalled that the National Council of our Church undertook to arrange resettlement of 1500 refugee "units," and our Diocesan Council, through the Department of Christian Social Relations, 100.

In 1956, we came within sight of our goal. Figures received from the National Council, speaking as of December 31, 1956, credit us with placing 111 arrivals and list us in fifth place among all Episcopal Dioceses in this program. At that time the Episcopal Church throughout the nation had resettled 2,731 persons.

One of the aspects of the work this year seeming to hold the most permanent value was the notable increase in active parish participation. Twelve families have now been resettled through parish sponsorship; and six others with material parish interest and assistance. The Rectors, staff, or lay representatives of still other parishes which have not yet taken a family have also helped, even before the Hungarian crisis. And since that time we have received more firm offers of help at the parish level than we have been able to utilize with refugees.

Undoubtedly, parish interest has been stimulated by the plight of the Hungarians. We believe promotional activity in 1956 also helped. Several messages were sent circularizing the clergy and others on current developments, and two articles on refugees were published in the Church News (one appearing in January, 1957).

At the end of 1956, our diocese had completed the resettlement of all refugees who had arrived under our responsibility. We were awaiting only two further cases where visas had been issued. We had agreed to resettle six others in which we were not yet notified of visa issuance—these may have lapsed by expiration of the enabling legislation. We nevertheless anticipated numbers of new cases in 1957, involving both Hungarian and other racial backgrounds. For many thousands of persons holding visas under the Act will enter the country during the first half of the new year.

Our efforts have been materially assisted by help in physical resettlement from members of the Department of C.S.R., and by implementation of the over-all program from the Division of C.S.R. of the Diocesan Women's Auxiliary—particularly the collection of house furnishings and household equipment. Above all, this work could not have reached half its present effectiveness without the self-sacrificing efforts of Miss Florence Davies far beyond the confines of her part-time service with the Department.

As we enter 1957, the possibility of new legislation in this humanitarian area must not be discounted.

Joint Committee With the Department of Missions on the Urban Church

Under the leadership of Bishop Armstrong, this committee was activated early in 1956. It has had two interesting and constructive meetings, and two meetings at urban parishes with widely different problems. Others are planned for the near future. Among the most heartening results thus far is the active participation of some laymen hitherto not involved in any effort at the diocesan level.

Respectfully submitted,

SYDNEY L. W. LEA,
Chairman

APPENDIX I

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON REVISION OF PAROCHIAL REPORT FORM

This Committee has found that other Dioceses and Committees are at work on proposed revision of the Parochial Report Form issued by General Convention. There seems to be considerable agreement on the nature of the revision desired. We therefore propose the following:

RESOLUTION: that this Committee be continued for one more year, with authority to work out a proposed Revised Parochial Report Form with interested groups from other Dioceses; and further, that the need for revision of the Form be placed before the next meeting of Province III, with a view to possible Provincial action before the 1958 General Convention.

In case of dissolution, the said books and papers should be turned over to the Registrar as soon as possible thereafter, for permanent storage in the Church House Vault.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION TO THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION MAY 6, 1957

The report of The Church Foundation has been distributed to the delegates and I hope you have had an opportunity to examine it.

Our Committees shown on page 3 have been actively engaged in the various fields in which The Church Foundation is engaged.

Funds

As designated Trustee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, The Church Foundation manages 29 Diocesan Funds with a book value of $1,532,000. in which the income is applied to various purposes in accordance with the terms of the trusts.

The Endowment Fund of the Episcopate is growing steadily. The book value is now $373,000. and the income paid during 1956 was $20,685. which represents an income return of about 5½% on the original investment.

Investment

Our Consolidated Fund offers an excellent diversified investment medium for capital funds of any Parish or Church Institution. The investments are under constant supervision by our Investment Committee and full banking facilities are provided by our fiscal agent the Provident-Tradesmens Bank and Trust Company. The policy of the Investment Committee has been to provide the best possible income for our 157 participating funds consistent with sound investment practice. As shown on page 15 earnings per unit have increased each year for 12 years and the yield is 4.2% at the present unit value.

Our Consolidated Legal Fund, still small in size, is maintained for funds restricted to legal investments and limited to one-third of its value in common stocks.

Real Estate

Under Real Estate, your attention is called to page 240 describing an act as amended in Bucks County which limits the assessment on all Church Parsonages or Rectories to $300. It would be well for all churches in Bucks County to check their assessments. The assessments in other counties of the Diocese vary. Sometimes there are special regulations in various townships, so that the question should be looked into.

Insurance

Insurance matters are covered on pages 240 to 242 of the Report.

Electrical Inspections which have been carried out on all Mission properties are a safeguard to prevent fires, but it is most important that the recommendations of the Insurance Underwriters be carried out.

Boiler insurance is mandatory by State law on certain types of pressure vessels and this should be looked into by all Churches. This insurance has been placed to cover 30 Mission locations where required by inspection.

Your attention is called to the advantages of Fine Arts Insurance to cover stained glass window breakage as described on page 242.

We are glad to report that the Church Fire Insurance Corporation have reduced their rates for fire insurance in the State of Pennsylvania. The discount from the published five year rates has been increased from 12% to 20% and all insurance premiums are payable on a quarterly basis based on 20 payments over a five year period.

Legal Advice

We are constantly in touch with our Committee on Trusts on legal matters as they arise. Mr. McCracken has given most helpful service as Chairman of this Committee.

We should be glad to hear from you regarding any questions in connection with this report.

APPENDIX K

REPORT OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION

TO THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION 1957

We wish to join in paying tribute to Thomas B. K. Ringe, Esquire, whose untimely death on January 21st last was a severe blow to The Church Foundation as well as to the entire Church. Mr. Ringe had only served as a member of our Board since last May, but we deeply regret that we will be deprived of his experience and dedicated service.

We report with regret the resignations during the past year of Mr. Reed A. Morgan and the Honorable Francis L. Van Dusen.

Mr. Morgan was a former Trustee of the Diocese and served as a Director of The Church Foundation since its incorporation in 1928 when merged with the former Trustees. We are most grateful to Mr. Morgan for his many years of faithful and valued service on the Board.

Judge Van Dusen, who served in the capacity of Assistant Secretary and Treasurer was forced to resign on account of his new duties. Mr. Ernest Scott was elected to succeed him in this capacity.

We welcome Mr. John D. Foster, a communicant of St. John's Church, Cynwyd, as a new member of our Board. Mr. Foster is Vice-President of the firm of Studley, Shupert and Co., Investment Counselors, and is giving valuable service as a member of our Investment Committee.

FUNDS

As designated Trustee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, The Church Foundation holds 29 Diocesan Funds having a total book value of $1,532,210.72 in which the income is applied for various purposes in accordance with the terms of the trusts. In addition there are 9 Building Funds, making a total of 38 Diocesan Funds.

The Church Foundation also manages 155 capital funds, having a total book value of $2,624,889.19, for various Parishes, Parish Cemeteries, Missions, Church Organizations and Church Institutions. These are principally invested funds generally operated under permanent or revocable agreements of trust for any specified purpose. In some cases The Church Foundation has been appointed Substituted Trustee by Court action for legacies received under wills. The Church Foundation is also an approved agency of the Diocese in accordance with the provisions of Canon XVI Section 1 in the same manner and to the same extent as National Banks, State Banks and Trust Companies.

The income is distributed at regular periods as specified, or the income may be accumulated and added to principal if desired.

senting income return of about 5½% on the original investment. This compares with income disbursements of $19,012.36 in 1955 and $16,148.21 in 1954.

Liquidated Funds

At the request of The Church Farm School we liquidated the Irick Gymnasium Building Fund. An amount of $25,000. was received by the Church Farm School under the will of Mary S. I. Drexel as a memorial to William Judson Irick for the purpose of building a gymnasium building at the Church Farm School. In December 1949 the Church Farm School deposited the sum of $25,000. with The Church Foundation under an agreement of trust where it could be called upon for the purpose of helping to build a gymnasium. An additional amount was added to the fund in 1950. The Fund was invested in U.S. Savings Series F bonds due 1961-62 at a cost price of $25,678. There was an accumulation of interest amounting to $2,775.75 after administration charges, and a check was sent to the Church Farm School for $28,453.75.

We also had an Irick Gymnasium Invested Income Account. The source of this account was the income derived from the Irick Gymnasium Maintenance Fund, a permanent Trust received as a $25,000. legacy in May 1950 under the will of Mary S. I. Drexel, the income of which could not be dispensed until the gymnasium was built, since it is to be used for the maintenance, upkeep and equipment of the Gymnasium building. We were given permission by the Church Farm School to invest the income derived from the Gymnasium Maintenance Fund in units of the Church Foundation Consolidated Fund. The accrued income from the Gymnasium Maintenance Fund was invested over a six year period in 672 units of the Church Foundation Consolidated Fund for a co-value of $8,936.81. The units were redeemed as of June 5, 1956 at the appraised value of $16.55 per unit for an amount of $11,122.23, showing a capital gain of $2,185.42. There was also accrued income in the amount of $542. making a total payment of $11,664.31. The new gymnasium has now been constructed and dedicated and the income from the Gymnasium Maintenance Fund is now being distributed for its upkeep.

Real Estate Taxes

In some counties of the Diocese, Church Parsonages are exempt from real estate taxes and in some counties they are taxable.

In Bucks County, in compliance with Act #254, as amended, all Church Parsonages were placed on the taxable list beginning in 1955 under an assessed valuation of $300. regardless of size, construction or location.

In the case of St. Paul's Church, Levittown, a Mission of the Diocese, it was discovered that they had paid a real estate tax for 1956 on their Parsonage in the amount of $145.53 based on an assessment of $2,250. The amount due on the proper assessment of $300. was only $19.40.

A claim for the tax refund was filed with the Board of Assessment and Revision of Taxes for Bucks County and as a result a refund of $126.13 was received and sent to the Mission. An adjusted bill for the year 1955, still outstanding, was sent to the Mission for payment.

The Reverend Charles H. Long, Secretary of the Diocese, has supplied us with a list of all our Churches in Bucks County having rectories and asked us to bring to their attention the passage of this act and to check their assessments. Accordingly, letters were sent to each Church, together with a copy of the Act.

Parish Properties

Changes in fire insurance are recorded during the past year on the following Parishes, whose title is in the name of The Church Foundation.

Holy Trinity, Lansdale
Incarnation, Drexel Hill
Incarnation, Morrisville
Redemption, Phila. Parish House
St. Aidan, Cheltenham
St. Alban, Newtown Square
St. Andrew, Yardley
St. Giles, Stonehurst
St. Jude and the Nativity

Fine Arts Insurance

This is an All-Risk policy and is being put into effect by an increasing number of Churches. It includes breakage to stained or plate glass windows in place or in transit as well as articles of artistic value. Vandalism and Malicious Mischief endorsements specifically exclude all glass breakage.

Under present rates, it is actually cheaper to provide all risk insurance on stained glass windows under a Fine Arts form than to include the value of such windows under the fire insurance policies. Where this is done, the amount of insurance on the building under the fire insurance policies can be reduced. We are recommending this procedure to be followed whenever possible.

The following Parishes and Missions have added Fine Arts insurance during the past year.

Advent, Hatboro
Holy Comforter, Aronomink
Holy Trinity, Lansdale
Redeemer, Springfield
St. Andrew, West Phila.
St. Giles, Stonehurst
St. Peter, Broomall
St. Philip-in-the Field, Oreland

Claims Paid During Year 1956

Public Liability

St. John, Compass — Damage to property is insured with $50. deductible clause, so that while the claim was $72.82, $22.82 was taken care of by the insurance company. Damage to windshield of a passing auto resulted from stones thrown by boys during Strawberry Festival.

St. Barnabas, Germantown — Personal injury to volunteer choir singer. Claim of $51. was paid by insurance company.

Windstorm

All Saints, Darby — Claim of $132. handled direct by the Parish.

INVESTMENT

Management

One of the most important tasks of the Church Foundation is the investment of the capital funds placed in our charge. The members of the Investment Committee keep the securities in our Consolidated Fund and Consolidated Legal Fund under constant supervision. All purchases and sales of securities are authorized by this Committee and we believe that excellent results have been obtained. The Church Foundation also has the advantage of complete banking facilities through the Provident Trust Company which acts as Fiscal Agent. All securities are kept in the vaults of the bank, as custodian, as well as complete records of the funds placed with The Church Foundation. Our Fiscal Agent also prepares all checks for distribution to our individual funds which are signed by the proper officers of the Bank and The Church Foundation. For this service a reasonable administration fee is charged against the income of our various funds.

Investment Policy

Our policy is to obtain the best possible income for our participating funds consistent with sound investment practice. Therefore, we have reduced our investment in common stocks and certain low-coupon bonds and purchased fixed income senior securties, producing as much or even higher income in some cases. We have purchased a fair proportion of bonds maturing over the next five years in order to take advantage of attractive investment opportunities as they arise. Capital gains are not taxable in The Church Foundation. The accumulated net gain on securities sold in the Consolidated Fund amounted to $138,184 during the year 1956.

Amortization

During past years, a small percentage of the income earned by units in the Consolidated Fund has been placed in an Amortization Reserve Fund, and added to the principal account. The purpose of this Fund is to offset principal loss due to bonds purchased at a premium above par value. Since this contingency has been provided for by our present Amortization Reserve Fund no amortization charges have been made during the past three years.

Incarnation, Drexel Hill — Claim of $30. handled direct by the Parish.

Vandalism

All Souls for Deaf, Phila. — Eight windows were broken by children in the neighborhood. Cost of repair approximately $100. This loss was not covered by insurance. A claim of $98.75 was paid for damage done to the interior of the building, however.

St. Andrew, West Phila. — Damage to stained glass windows. Claim of $140. paid under Fine Arts policy for repairs.

St. Philip-in-the Field, Oreland — Damage to piece of stained glass window, and under Fine Arts policy. Claim for $30. paid under Fine Arts policy for its repair.

Fire

St. Andrew, Yardley — Damage to Rectory. Claim for $68. paid under fire insurance policy.

Electrical Inspections

The Executive Council approved a plan submitted by our Insurance Committee for electrical inspections of all Missions and Diocesan properties by the Middle Department Association of Fire Underwriters. A list of 28 properties was submitted for this inspection. The incentive for such inspections is to prevent fires which would interrupt the work of the Church, and might incidentally endanger the lives of occupants at the time of fire. The inspections were completed by the Middle Department Association of Fire Underwriters in November, 1956. At all but three of the properties, recommendations for improvement were made, and in some cases these recommendations were extensive. The reports have been filed with the Diocesan Authorities for appropriate action.

Boiler and Pressure Vessel Insurance

This insurance has been in force since 1950 on Mission Properties which have pressure vessels requiring periodic inspection under State Law. Under the 1947 State Code there were 15 such locations; but the 1954 State Code made inspection mandatory on additional types of pressure vessels, and the renewal of insurance for the period December 11, 1956-1959 has been arranged to cover 30 locations, on recommendation of our Insurance Committee, approved by the Department of Finance.

CONSOLIDATED FUND

Each unit of the Consolidated Fund has a participating interest in the portfolio of securities consisting of bonds, preferred stocks and common stocks in various industries listed later in this report. This Fund is not restricted to legal investments for trust funds. The diversification of investments is of particular advantage to participating funds.

There were 157 participating funds in the Consolidated Fund as of December 31, 1956. These funds held a total of 301,801 units representing an investment of $3,452,533.71, or an average cost price of $11.44 per unit for the total number of units outstanding.

These same units had a market value of $4,865.032. at the latest appraisal of $16.12 per unit on December 5, 1956.

The participating funds are grouped below in accordance with size and amounts as of December 31, 1956.

Funds	Size	Number of Units	Cost
53	Up to $5,000.	8,635	$ 104,601.93
32	$5,000. to $10,000.	18,740	216,856.98
39	$10,000. to $25,000.	51,285	610,128.56
19	$25,000. to $50,000.	51,789	625,286.11
7	$50,000. to $100,000.	42,200	484,037.52
7	Over $100,000.	129,152	1,411,622.61
157		301,801	$3,452,533.71

The Consolidated Fund was established in 1943 when the original units were priced at $10. each and they have never been worth less than this amount. The earnings per unit have increased each year since that time, which has kept the income yield attractive for purchases of new units.

The value per unit on December 5, 1956 was $16.12 and the income was 67.8 cents per unit for the year 1956, giving an income yield of 4.21% on the current unit value.

On the basis of the average cost of all outstanding units of $11.44 per unit, the average income yield per unit was approximately 6% based on 1956 income of 67.8 cents per unit.

CONSOLIDATED LEGAL FUND

The Consolidated Legal Fund was established in 1953. It is primarily a medium for investment of funds which are restricted to Legal Investments. However, the Consolidated Legal Fund may be used advantageously by any fund whose primary purpose is conservative investment and one in which values would not be subject to wide fluctuations, since this Fund is limited by statute to one-third of market value in common stocks.

There were 13 funds participating in the Consolidated Legal Fund as of December 31, 1956. These funds hold a total of 5,933 units representing an investment of $63,339.37 or an average cost of $10.67 per unit.

These same units had a market value of $63,483. at the latest appraisal of $10.70 per unit on December 5, 1956.

The participating funds are grouped below in accordance with size and amounts:

REPORT OF THE CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

This has been a year of much activity in the affairs of the Cathedral Church of Christ in Upper Roxborough. On October 30, 1956, after much discussion and consideration, the Chapter awarded the contract for the construction of the James and Martha B. Hay Memorial Chapter House. Work has been in progress and it is planned that Bishop Hart will lay the cornerstone of the new building with appropriate ceremonies on the afternoon of May 19, 1957. The Chapter House is a notable step forward in the life of the Cathedral and will make available facilities for certain Diocesan activities.

Of course the life of the Congregation of St. Mary's Chapel in the Cathedral Foundation under the splendid guidance of the Vicar, the Reverend James T. Berger, has grown and more fully developed throughout the year and the completion of the Chapter House will give to this congregation ample Parish House accommodations sorely needed in the past and in greater demand now.

During the year the Chapter accepted with deep regret the resignation of Lay Canon Henry Lear for reasons of health. Mr. Lear over a period of ten years, most of them as Chairman of the Property Committee for the Chapter, assumed much responsibility for and devoted much time to the oversight of the physical fabric of the Cathedral and its surrounding properties. He had a keen interest in the Congregation of St. Mary's Chapel and did all he could to help its progress. His devotion to and interest in the Cathedral Foundation and his regular attendance at Chapter meetings will be greatly missed. We hoped for him a speedy and complete recovery. Mr. George C. Niblo was elected to succeed Mr. Lear.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON RECTOR'S SALARIES AND PENSIONS

Over the past thirty years the Commission on Rector's Salaries and Pensions has administered the Sustentation Fund to aid as many as thirty and more Parishes so that the Vestries could pay their rectors canonical salaries. Most of these aided Parishes have either recovered from their temporary slump in income, or united with another Parish to gain greater strength. It is a noteworthy fact that at the present time there are only four Parishes asking aid. Members of the Commission interviewed the Rectors and some of the Vestrymen as to what they believed was the future course for them to take; either to continue for the time being as aided Parishes believing that they can resume full payment of the Rector's salary soon, or to temporarily assume the status of Diocesan Missions. The Committee reported unanimously that these four Parishes should be continued on their present course, as brighter prospects were to be seen for the future.

The annual report of the Executive Vice-President of the Church Pension Fund is most illuminating. Mr. Robert Worthington includes these items of interest to all of us. "The financial position of the Pension Fund continues sound. Its assets are about $75 million, with a satisfactory margin over its guarantees. Investment earnings are favorable." A total of 2887 persons, clergy, Disabled Clergy, Widows and Orphans are receiving $2,935,059 annually. In the Diocese of Pennsylvania 57 Clergy are receiving $97,093.80, while 70 Widows are receiving $52,161.24 and 2 Orphans receive $900.12, a total of $150,155.16. annually.

Practically all assessments have been met by the Parishes during this past year, and with only four Vestries seeking aid from the Sustentation Fund, your Commission would ask the Convention to grant the sum of $6,000.00 for the Sustentation Fund for 1958, an amount which has been sufficient for some years past.

Resolved, That the Commission on Rector's Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess for the Sustentation Fund for the year 1958, the sum of $6,000.00.

Since there seems to be no explicit mention of what constitutes the minimum salary of a Rector of a Parish who receives no aid from Diocesan Funds, the Commission, in order to clear an ambiguity in the canon regarding clerical salaries and to give some guide and an earnest hope that such a figure might be accepted by the Convention, suggests an additional Amendment to the Resolution of the Convention of 1955 on Clerical Salaries (page 105 of Constitution and Canons 1956) by the addition of the following resolution:

"Be it further resolved, that the Resolution on Clerical Salaries in regard to minimum salaries relating to all who receive compensation from Diocesan sources shall be accepted by Vestries of all Parishes as the minimum to be paid Rectors in the Diocese of Pennsylvania."

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. NIBLO, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

The Right Reverend the Bishop of Pennsylvania, and the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

Two propositions were presented to the Committee on Constitution and Canons within the last few weeks. It was not necessary to call a meeting of the Committee to consider the first proposition, and the second proposition did not fall within the terms of reference of this Committee.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons is in the unique position of having no new business to bring before this Convention.

However, the amendment to the Constitution of this Diocese to permit women to take seat and vote in this Convention comes up this year for a second and final vote.

Your Committee is in receipt of the following Proposition:

"The following proposition for amendment of the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania having been offered, considered and approved by the Convention thereof called and held on Monday, April 30, 1956, and Tuesday, May 1, 1956, is hereby offered for second consideration, according to the provisions of Article X of said Constitution:

"That the words 'Lay Persons' be substituted for the word 'Laymen' in sentence one of Article IV of the Constitution of this Diocese."

An "Explanatory Statement" follows: "The purpose of this amendment is to assure recognition that women are entitled to a voice and vote in the affairs of the Church in this Diocese."

The document is signed by: John C. Knewstub, Edward Platts, Mark Mills Garcia, Richard D. Partington, Hadley B. Williams, T. Gordon Ott, and George W. Wickersham.

This is the same Proposition which was submitted to this Convention in 1956, and upon which it acted. There is nothing more your Committee can add; it finds the Proposition in order. It is, therefore, moved that the words "Lay Persons" be substituted for the word "Laymen" in sentence one of Article IV of the Constitution of this Diocese.

Your Committee desires to remind the Convention that if the Constitution or the Canons are altered, such alterations take effect only under the provision of Article X and Canon XXII:

ARTICLE X of the Constitution provides that when the Constitution is altered the amendment shall be "valid and obligatory, from and after the final adjournment of the Convention."

Canon XXII, Of Alterations in the Canon Law, Sec. 3 provides that "amendments or additions to these Canons shall take effect upon the adjournment of the Convention which adopted the same unless otherwise specially ordered by the Convention."

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CONTROL OF THE DIOCESAN LIBRARY 1956

Ten church magazines were subscribed to and placed on the rack in room 11. Eighty-four books were purchased and one donated. These were chosen by the members of the Board from book reviews and lists sent them by the Librarian, and from their own literary resources. The list of new books purchased during the year was sent to all the clergy and laymen in charge of parishes, Perpetual Deacons, students and others using the Library, as well as Woman's Auxiliary Committee Chairmen.

The books were cleaned, as usual, during the summer, and 36 were sent to the bindery to be rebound. New books were listed in the Church News. The Library is free to all clergy and laity of the Diocese, but $1.00 a year is acceptable from those who wish to be sustaining members. All books should be checked in and out at the Information Window or with the Librarian in Room 37, where the catalogue is located.

CORPORATION FOR CHRISTIAN WORK IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

(Commission for College Work)

Report of Executive Secretary — 1956

Early in the year the Executive Secretary visited Lincoln College with the Rev. Matthew Davis, our Chaplain appointed to minister to Episcopalians on that campus. After talking informally with faculty and students, we spent the night there, and he celebrated the Holy Communion for all Churchmen the next morning. As a result of this visit and on request of the Chaplain, the commission decided to increase our allocation to our work at Lincoln to make possible weekly instead of monthly visits of our Chaplain to that college. It is one of the foremost centers of higher education for Negroes in this country, and deserves special attention in view of its strategic importance, although the number of Churchmen on the campus is small. There are students from Africa especially who should have the opportunity of hearing the Gospel in our tradition. It is also hoped that vocations to the priesthood may be raised up here, as the Church has a great need for Negro clergy.

The Rev. Horace Albion Ferrell resigned his duties at Cheyney State Teachers' College in the spring with his cure at the Church of the Ascension in West Chester, to take up the position of Chaplain at Howard University, in Washington, D. C. We are honored that he was called to that important position in the college ministry. He is succeeded by the Rev. Cecil Cowan, whom we are glad to welcome to the Diocese. Cheyney is the other center of Negro college work in the Diocese. Neither of these schools is now segregated by race, but the student bodies are still predominantly Negro.

In March the Executive Secretary conducted a Quiet Evening for the Episcopal Students at Temple University at the Church of the Annunciation. The Rector, the Rev. Robert Harris, is appointed Chaplain to Temple students, as his Church is close by the campus. The situation is unique in the Diocese, and possibly in the National Church, in that a Negro priest ministers successfully to a predominantly white student body. College work provides special opportunities for interracial fellowship, as Christian young people with education are quick to grasp new ways of thinking and living unprejudiced by traditions of the past.

At Drexel it has seemed wise to maintain the association of our college work with St. Andrew's Parish for another year on an experimental basis, continuing the arrangement which has prevailed for several years. In 1955, the Rev. Edward Rementer came to take over the work of this Parish as vicar under the direction of the Rev. Thomas Logan, Rector of Calvary Church. The Rev. Mr. Rementer is the first resident priest in that Parish for several years and has been chaplain to Drexel Students of our Church since his arrival. During a period of transition in the parish, he has tried to maintain contact with Drexel students, who are constantly moving because of the Institute's program of work in industry alternating with study. So far, the experiment has met with enough success to justify its continuance. The Church of the Saviour has historic ties with the Institute through the Drexel family and the College administration. Its Rector, the Rev. Frederick Brooks, ministers to the college in this way, while the Rev. Mr. Rementer conducts the pastoral ministry and directs the program of the Canterbury Club.

The clergy of the Center City area met at the parish house of the Church of the Holy Trinity in May to discuss ways and means of strengthening their ministry to Center City institutions. This work has been for many years officially the responsibility of the Rev. Edward Pollanick of Holy Trinity Parish. It was decided that it should remain so, although other parishes may and should carry on a pastoral and sacramental ministry to students in nearby schools. The Sunday Evening educational program of Holy Trinity should complement the ministry of each parish and provide a common meeting place for all students in the Center City Area. In order to strengthen this common effort, a brochure describing the location and services of each Center City parish was planned and printed, and distributed widely in October. The brochure will be available again September, 1957, for students entering college then. The student work at Holy Trinity has been greatly strengthened by the addition of the Centennial Room in the church basement. It is now possible for two groups to meet simultaneously in the parish house and Centennial Room, and a Canterbury Club specifically for college students has been formed to supplement the Trinity Club for young adults.

A twenty-four hour retreat for college students in the Diocese was held at the Conference Center in Radnor in March, led by the Rev. Herbert Bicknell of the Order of the Holy Cross. Despite a heavy snow and sickness of the Executive Secretary, it was adjudged a great success by all attending.

The annual conference for students was held at the same place in December. About thirty students from most of the colleges were present to hear the Rev. Dr. Robert McNair of the Philadelphia Divinity School discuss "Myths Modern Man Lives By."

We welcomed at this conference for the first time a group of cadets from the Pennsylvania Military College. A Canterbury Club had recently been organized there under the direction of the Rev. John Hauser. St. Paul's Parish in Chester has extended a welcome to Pennsylvania Military College students for many years. but this is the first year there has been an organized student group.

Dr. Norman Pittenger, Professor of Apologetics at the General Theological Seminary, led the annual Faculty Conference in May at Radnor. He dealt with the subject of new interpretation of old Christian truths, a reinterpretation for the college professor. Dr. Digby Baltzell, Sociologist of the University of Pennsylvania, is the lay leader of the Faculty Fellowship in the Diocese.

The Commission desided that a full-time executive secretary would have to be employed if its mission were to be carried out adequately in the expanding academic communities. The Commission's proposed 1957 budget was submitted to the Budget Committee of the Diocese on that basis, but it felt it could not approve this for incorporation into the Diocesan budget, so that it was not submitted to Convention.

In June three new persons were appointed by the Presiding Bishop to the Division of College Work of the National Council.

The Rev. Philip Zabriskie became Executive Secretary, replacing the Rev. Roger Blanchard. Dr. Thomas Govan has come to lead the Faculty Work, a position left vacant by the resignation of Dr. T. S. K. Scott-Craig. Mrs. Harding Migotti has been added to the staff to care especially for the needs of foreign students who are coming to American campuses in increasing numbers.

In May at the annual meeting of the Corporation Mr. Howard Kellogg, our President, was re-elected for an unexpired term of one year to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of the Rev. Thomas Meryweather. We are most indebted to the Rev. Mr. Meryweather for his faithful services.

The Commission mourns with the whole Diocese, the loss of Thomas B. K. Ringe, its former President, believing he is engaged in greater service in God's Kingdom beyond the veil.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES K. C. LAWRENCE,

Executive Secretary

APPENDIX S
REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

The Committee on Christian Vocations held two meetings during the past year in preparation for our second Conference on Christian Vocations.

We accepted with thanks the kind invitation of the Rector of Holy Trinity, Philadelphia for our conference which was held on the Feast of St. John the Evangelist, December 27th, 1956.

Bishop Hart celebrated the Eucharist which was attended by about sixty persons representing some 20 parishes and missions of the Diocese and by two observers from other Dioceses.

The aim of the Conference is to present to our young people some of the many ways in which they can use their lives in direct work in God's Church. The Sacred Ministry is one of these ways, but we stress that it is by no means the only way.

To implement our aim we had, in addition to the Reverend Dr. Harry Longley, who spoke on the Parochial Ministry, such speakers as Dr. Dora Chaplin on Religious Educational work; Reverend Arnold Purdie of City Missions in this Diocese who gave a graphic account both of the scope of the work of City Mission and of the need for adequately trained workers. What a layman can do in ministering to the sick poor under Church auspices in the disciplined life was ably set forth by Brother Homer, of the Brothers of St. Barnabas, while Gretchen Kretlinger of the Church Army told something of the work of that too little known evangelistic effort. Sister Mary Michael, O.S.H. set forth with charming simplicity the work and life of a woman dedicated to the conventual life in the Church in its teaching, and parochial activities.

Every effort is made to have the conference representative of the whole life of the whole Church. The reactions from the participants, both those who spoke and those who heard, were most enthusiastic. Other dioceses, hearing of our work, have written to us to ask assistance in formulating their own work in this much needed area.

We would appeal to the clergy of the Diocese to make their personal participation in this effort by making the conference known. We feel that each parish should have at least one representative present and we appeal to the clergy to make this their goal for 1957 conference which will be held at the Philadelphia Divinity School, probably on December 27th.

THE COMMITTEE TO STUDY REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF GENERAL CONVENTION DEFINITION OF "A MEMBER OF THIS CHURCH"

The Committee appointed at the Convention of 1956 is as follows: The Rev. Ralph Coonrad, J.C.D., Convener; the Rev. John H. A. Bomberger, D.D., the Rev. William P. S. Lander, D.D.; Edward S. Morris, Esq., and Ernest Scott, Esq.

The Convener of this special Committee reports that due to events beyond his control the said Committee did not meet. Shortly after the Convention of 1956 the Convener had to receive medical treatment, and in the Fall entered the hospital. It was deemed by physicians unwise for him to assume outside work until early in 1957, and that his duties for the most part be confined to parochial work and lectures at the Philadelphia Divinity School.

This being the case, your Convener asks, in the name of the Committee, that the Committee be continued, and that it report to the Convention of 1958.

Respectfully submitted:

PETITION TO REVISE CANON XX IN THE MATTER OF ALTERNATE DEPUTIES TO GENERAL CONVENTION

Yesterday afternoon your Committee on Constitution and Canons received a petition to amend sub-section of Canon XX of the Diocesan Canons. The purpose of the suggested amendments is to bring the Canon into conformity with the will of this Convention stated in a Resolution pertaining to the election of Alternate Deputies to General Convention under certain prescribed conditions.

Your Committee, or such as could be got together quickly, have considered the suggested amendments, which read as follows:

> An addition to Canon XX Section I, subsection 1. After the first paragraph add: "But when Deputies are elected at the Annual Convention in the year preceding the General Convention, any vacancy occuring in the deputation before the next Annual Convention, shall be filled by an election at the Convention immediately preceding the General Convention."
> An addition to Canon XX Section I sub-section 1 referring to the election of Alternate Deputies to General Convention, add after paragraph 2: "But when Deputies to General Convention are elected at the Annual Convention in the year preceding the meeting of General Convention, the Alternates shall be elected by ballot at the Diocesan Convention immediately preceding General Convention."

These amendments look easier to draft and insert properly into the Canon than is actually the case. It would be easier, and the Canon would be less cluttered, if the Convention were to redraft the sub-sections dealing with election of Deputies and Alternates, making it mandatory to elect Deputies in the year next preceding the General Convention, and to elect Alternates, as necessity arises, at the Diocesan Convention preceding immediately the General Convntion. But this is not to be the case.

It is the considered opinion of this Committee on Constitution and Canons that the practical effect of the Resolution passed recently, and the Canons proposed today, eliminates the necessity of Alternate Deputies to General Convention in the years provided under this proposed change of Canon XX. But in the years not affected by this Canon, the law on Alternate Deputies as it now stands remains in effect.

What is actually proposed in the Resolution and in the amendments appended to Section I of Canon XX is that when Deputies shall be elected in the year preceding General Convention the rule pertaining to Alternate Deputies shall be in fact, if not in theory, in suspension and without force until after the General Convention has met. It is the considered opinion of this Committee that such amendments to the Canon must state that such rules are in suspension.

The proposed amendments (with an addition not previously suggested by Mr. Twelves) have been redrafted, with the above considerations in mind. They read as follows:

> Add this new sentence to sub-section 1, paragraph 1, of Section I of Canon XX: "If a vacancy should occur among the Deputies elected by the Diocesan Convention in the year next preceding the General Convention, the said vacancy shall be filled by election in the Diocesan Convention preceding immediately the General Convention."
> Add to paragraph 2, Section I of Canon XX this new sentence: "But this rule for selection of Alternate Deputies shall be suspended when Deputies to General Convention are elected at the Diocesan Convention in the year next preceding the General Convention. Alternate Deputies shall then be elected by ballot by the Diocesan Convention preceding immediately the General Convention."

As redrafted, your Committee finds the proposed amendments in order, and submits them to debate by this Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

RALPH E. COONRAD, Chairman

Committee on Constitution and Canons
